

The New Year. In the bright dawn of a new year, one clear December night, I sat and watched the year pass, from the twinkling of stars...

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

MOORE MACHINERY. Respected to-day at No. 4's - a lot of heavy moose moans. All sizes.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH. There will be services in St. John's Church next Sunday, 12th, morning and evening.

MISS COOLING. An excellent race, which will be found in the present column, has been telegraphed over here, and it is hoped that Miss Stewhart will succeed her.

FRASERWORKY. Miss Staples has been presented with a purse of $100, made up for her on Saturday night by a number of citizens, as a proof of their sympathy with her in her loss by Friday night's fire.

TRACADIE FISHING. Tracadie advice informs us that the smelt-fishing in the river has been almost a failure up to the present time, the catch not averaging more than enough to pay for the men's time.

KID GLOVES. Ladies requiring Kid Gloves either white or evening shades, any size or number of buttons, will please send their order to Jas. C. Fairry, N. S. Castle, who will procure them at St. John's.

AGRICULTURAL. The Earl of Northumberland Agricultural Society is to meet at the Waverly House, Newcastle, on Tuesday next. The object of the meeting is to consider the matter of holding a winter exhibition, etc.

FIRE. On Friday morning between 6 and 7 o'clock, Mr. Turner's residence near the saw mill at Tracadie was burned to the ground. It is supposed that the fire originated from shavings near the stove pipe which passed through a room next the day before as a work shop.

XMAS TRAMPS. Rev. J. C. Quinn, Tracadie, has received a handsome invitation, as a Christmas present, from a number of friends in the congregations of St. John's Church and New Jersey. Rev. Mr. Quinn thinks those friends who have in this practical manner provided for his comfort in travelling.

LECTURE. H. A. Powell, Esq., J. A. B. of Sackville, was the lecturer in the regular Chatham course in Temperance, H. I. on Tuesday evening. His subject was, "The Irish Question." The chair was occupied by O. A. Blair, Esq., and a vote of thanks moved by L. J. Tweedie, Esq., and seconded by Mr. Wm. Wyse, was unanimously passed.

A RUTHAL HUSBAND AND FATHER. Jas. Howley, a restless brute, who was fined $10 or $20 in the police court, yesterday, for beating his wife in a horrible manner while drunk, will be presented by the S. P. C. C. for cruelty to his young daughter. It is charged he threw her from a three-story window, but she saved herself from probable death by clutching the window sill and hanging there until a young man came along, and she dropped into his arms. -Hal. Chron.

A MORAL LESSON. The dismissal of Mr. Justimus Sway, as salary officer at Tracadie, is said to have been effected with the aid of the Inspector at St. John at the bidding of the gentleman in whose name a sum of $3000 for the furtherance of his own schemes during the past six or seven years and, finally, tried of him when he showed a little independence. Mr. Jeremiah Maczelle is named as Mr. Sway's successor both in the salary office and in the questionable position of Vice Advocate to the ex-Deputy-Prosecutor. This man's Sway's business has a moral lesson which should not be lost upon many men in every constituency of the Province.

THE SERVICES OF SON. In the Methodist Church on Sunday evening last was attended by a large number than is ever seen at the ordinary services. The children of the Sabbath School sang several new pieces, under the leadership of the Superintendent, in a most effective and pleasing manner, which all present deeply enjoyed. Miss. Andrus, organist of the S. School, presided at the organ. The pastor, Rev. T. Hicks, delivered an admirable sermon, which he delivered into two parts, speaking first to the congregation, and afterwards to the children, who occupied the greater portion of the space within the communion rail. The collection taken up in aid of the school amounted to over ten dollars. -Advocate.

THE LATE SIR HUGH ALLAN. The remains of the late Sir Hugh Allan arrived on the mail steamer "Samaritan," which reached Halifax at one o'clock Monday morning. The body, which was in a coffin, was transferred to a special car attached to the mail train and about an hour afterwards the train left for the Upper Province. Mr. Bryce Allan and Miss Eliza Allan, an only daughter of Sir Hugh, and Mr. Alfred White of Quebec in-law, accompanied the remains, and in company with Mr. H. Montague Allan and his son, Mr. Andrew Allan, son, and Captain Mackay, son-in-law of Sir Hugh, proceeded on the mail train for Montreal.

CLIFFTON SCHOOL. A valued correspondent in behalf of himself and others, sends the following. The school in District No. 9, Cliffon, has been in charge of Miss E. E. Rivers, since Nov. 1st, and is regarded as an improved condition to what it had been for the last few years. Miss Rivers maintains very good order in school and is an excellent teacher. At one time this school was regarded as a superior school, but now, owing to the downward of our funds, we are not able to support it as such. But we are confident that under the administration of our present teacher, general satisfaction will be given, though she has no amount. Some of the pupils will be presented in Standards VII and VIII at the next annual visit of the Inspector. In the meantime we are sincere in wishing Miss Rivers a very Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year.

RATIFIERS OF CLIFFTON. MERIC - Oliver Dison & Co. send us an account of their weekly work in publishing their tract, the following. If we go to a set as this is published every week, their counters must be very active. "Broad Road Waits" and "Bunch of Roses Gallop," costing 25 cts. each, are two out of twenty easy pieces by E. Mack. The whole is called "Bouquet of Flowers." Teachers will be pleased to examine it. "Value of Unsettled" (40 cts.) and "Flower Song" (40 cts.) are two other easy pieces, called "Charming Belle," by C. Kinkead. "Laughing and Crying" (25 cts.) and "A Story" (25 cts.) are two more, classical in style and of a high order. "Alas how easily things go wrong," (35 cts.) by Cowen, "Twenty years ago," (35 cts.) by E. St. John, "New was I wrong," (35 cts.) by Engel, and "Forsaken Time," "Dish modest," (30 cts.) by Frank, are four first rate songs by good compositors.

OBITUARY. Another old resident of the city has passed away in the person of Mr. James Milligan, who died at his residence, King street east, at half-past one this afternoon. Mr. Milligan, who was a native of Thornhill, Ontario, was 78 years of age. He was born in the town of Thornhill, Ontario, and came to New Brunswick forty-one years ago, settling for a year or two on a farm in York County. He subsequently entered into business as a storekeeper in partnership with his father, and afterwards with his brother, Mr. Robert Milligan. Owing to failing health the partnership was dissolved a few years ago, since which time the deceased gentleman has been gradually declining. Mr. Milligan sat in the Common Council for a short time as Alderman for Queen's Ward, and was a candidate for the Mayoralty a short time before his death. He possessed strong determination of mind and purpose, and was justly esteemed for his integrity of character. It is only a little more than a year since Mr. Milligan paid a visit to his former home. -St. John Globe of 26th.

SUFFER AT BATHURST. Mr. Burns was given a Supper by his friends on Friday evening last, at the Wilbur House, Bathurst, preparatory to his annual trip to England, for which place he left by steamer from Halifax on Saturday last. The dining hall of the Wilbur House was filled to its seating capacity. The occasion must have been a highly gratifying one to Mr. Burns, as the different speakers referred in terms of high praise to his energy, business enterprise and integrity. Mr. Burns and Mrs. Burns were well attended by Senator Ferguson and John Siveright, Esq., respectively. The toast of "Our Union" was received with enthusiasm, and was replied to by Mr. Burns. Mr. Burns is an excellent speaker. The last arrival of the train gave an opportunity for a number of speeches and songs, in which Messrs. McManus, M. P. P., McLaughlin, Sutherland, Siveright, W. J. O'Brien, Consul-General and others contributed their share. -Advocate.

THE TOM PEPPER OF TABERNACLE. Mr. John Symist of Tabernacle must be a very worthy person, in his own estimation, for he has no doubt, imagined it is in order to give him a high position on his part to play a kind of second-fiddle to the bear-ness of the backwoods. He ventures the statement, when in town the other day, that a bear had been chased into his lumber camp and killed there. It is now true that Mr. Symist is a giant intellect. The truth is that while some men are being put to rest from his camp, a top-elevator track was discovered and followed for half a day by his son, William and others, who mistook it for a car-track, and we presume the father thought he might get square with some one because his son had done it. Mr. S. had a scared look about him when he was relating his story and if our report recollects correctly the old gentleman's hair is so end which the impromptu newspaper man interested to be the result of the scare the bear gave him, but he is included in this class of tickle-holders. -Hal. Chron.

Christmas at St. Mary's and St. Paul's Churches. The usual Christmas services were held at St. Mary's Chapel at 11 a.m. and in St. Paul's Church at 3 p.m. on Christmas Day. The service in St. Mary's was attended by an unusually large congregation, and the Sunday School children sang appropriate carols, before the regular service. A pleasing epistle before the conclusion was the presentation of the Bazaar of a handsome Christmas gift from the children. The usual service, which consisted of Morning Prayer, Holy Communion and sermon, was very hearty, and the choir performed their part admirably. The music was as follows: -

Psalm 264, Hatching. Te Deum, Strophes. Jubilate, 283, Hatching. Anthem, "Hosanna," Hymn 59, A & M. Kyrie 341, Hatching. Gloria, before the Gospel, 352, A. Offertory, "Thou art worthy," O Lord, etc. Sanctus, 402, Hatching. The Chapel was antiphonally decorated with evergreen and tinsel, banners, etc. The chancel walls and arch and the windows of the nave were trimmed with spruce. Beneath the east window and over the altar in the name "Litanies," in white letters on a scarlet ground, "In the choir are the words 'Aliterna, Allotus,' and across the chancel arch, 'Christ is born in Bethlehem.' In the front of the chancel, on the wall between the windows with appropriate texts, 'God sent forth his Son,' 'God manifest in the flesh,' etc. The font, pulpit, prayer desk and lectern are suitably trimmed with spruce and everlastings. In St. Paul's the service consisted of evening prayer and sermon, with suitable music, well rendered by the choir, as follows: -

Magnificat. None Dumitri. Hymns 59, 60, 30, A & M. The altar decorated extensively with its simple and tasteful Christmas decorations. Evergreens, ferns and berries are effectively arranged upon the font, prayer desk, lectern, altar-rail and at the window. At the base of the latter are the texts, 'Lo, I am with you always.' Above the window is the text, 'Hail, Holy, Lord God Almighty.' Various other texts are hung on the walls of the nave between the windows and on the gallery front. The offerings at the services amounted to $37.93.

Newcastle Spool Factory Burned. At six o'clock yesterday evening a fire alarm was rung, the fire being in the Newcastle Spool Factory. The fire started at the upper end, somewhere about the addition where the spinning machine was situated and at the opposite end from the boiler and drying houses.

When the fire broke out there were about a quarter of an hour after the alarm was rung, the fire had made great headway, and was spreading rapidly through the mill building. Had water been available from the fire engine at the time, it would have been saved, but owing to the distance of the factory from available water, and the time occupied in shifting the engine from the ferry wharf, the fire was first placed but soon well on its way, in position on the ice in the mill room, it was fully three quarters of an hour before water was thrown on the building, and by that time the mill building was destroyed and the boiler and engine house were slightly damaged. The drying house and its contents were saved. There were no persons in the factory when the fire broke out, but it is believed that some four or five persons, which had been brought down to load with cases from the factory, one was loaded the other party by so empty. They were at once run out of danger by willing and energetic efforts were made to place as many of the cases of spools or spool wool as possible outside and close to the building-out of danger. As these cases are heavy and were a good deal of water on the ground, it was pretty hard work, but it was kept at as long as it was possible to ensure the heat. The factory was not at work yesterday. Mr. Russell and his men being absent loading cars with hunch for use in the factory. The loss, including about a thousand dollars worth of finished stock is estimated at between ten and twelve thousand dollars. Insurance $5,000. Origin of fire unknown, as the building is heated by steam, and there was not even a lamp in use at evening. The two or three hands at work having knocked off before dark. -Advocate 27th.
