EVERYBODY WANTS INSURANCE.

It is said that the fear of a future punishment often drives men to religion, which may or may not be true. However, it is a fact that the fear of loss from the forest fires now raging is driving many to insurance. Since the danger became real the insurance offices of the city have been practically besieged with applications for protection, which shows that the farmers know a good thing when they see it.

KINGS CIRCUIT COURT.

The Kings circuit court opened at Hampton yesterday afternoon, Judge Hanington presiding. The full panel of grand jurors were present. There being no business of a civil or criminal nature to come before the court, after a few remarks from the judge the jurors were discharged and the court adjourned sine die.

STILL IMPROVING.

Reports of President McKinley's Physicians Continue Emphatically Hopeful.

Czolgosz Still Maintains He Had No Accomplices - Federal Government Will Probably Prosecute - Emma Goldman Arrested in Chicago.

MILBURN HOUSE, BUFFALO, Sept. 11. - The following bulletin was issued by the President's physicians at 6 a. m.: "The president has passed a very comfortable night. Pulse, 120; temperature, 100.2; respiration, 26."

MILBURN HOUSE, Sept. 11. - The following bulletin was issued by the President's physicians: "9 a. m. - The President rested comfortably during the night. Decided benefit has followed the dressing of the wound made last night. His stomach tolerates the beef juice well and it is taken with great satisfaction. His condition this morning is excellent. Pulse, 116; temperature, 100.2."

MILBURN HOUSE, Buffalo, Sept. 11. - Dr. Rixey was seen by an Associated Press reporter shortly after the six o'clock bulletin was issued. He seemed in an excellent frame of mind and supplemented the statements in the bulletin by saying there was absolutely no alarm over the president's condition; that his condition was not serious, and the facts were just as published in the statements made by the attending physicians.

THE BULLET WOUNDS. BUFFALO, Sept. 11. - When the operation was performed on Friday last it was noted that the bullet had carried with it a short distance beneath the skin a fragment of the president's coat. This foreign material was, of course, removed, but a slight irritation of tissues was produced, the evidence of which has appeared only tonight. It has been necessary, on account of this slight disturbance to remove a few stitches and partially open the skin wound. This incident cannot give rise to other complications. Dr. Rixey today said that the opening of the wound was in no sense an operation. "It was more in the nature of a redressing of the wound, an antiseptic dressing to allay the slight irritation that had appeared."

"The fact that the wound in the president's abdomen is not healing by 'first intention,' is not a feature at all unusual in such cases, explained one of the president's physicians. On the contrary, it is usual for gun-shot wounds to heal by what is termed 'second intention,' through granulation. Especially is this the case with older persons, whereas in the case of young people they usually heal by 'first intention.'"

"There is absolutely no indication of blood poisoning in the president's case," said the doctor, when a newspaper man hinted that the irritation which had appeared at the exterior wound might have pertaken of that nature. Dr. Roswell Park, who came from the house two minutes later gave the most positive assurances of satisfaction at the condition of the president. "What was done last night," said he, "should not be called a second operation of any operation at all, as it was nothing of the kind. It was just that ordinary care given to an incision called for by the requirements of surgery. In fact as affecting the patient it was little more than opening his vest - so the opening of the incision should not be given an erroneous interpretation. None of us in particular performed the work, as might be the case if anything in the nature of an operation had occurred, but all of us assisted in what was done. Two stitches were taken out, but it was not necessary to make any new stitches."

Dr. Park was asked as to the result of the beef juice taken by the president last night. "The results have been excellent," he replied, "and this morning we have increased the quantity of beef juice fed by the mouth. The natural digestive processes are operating and the wounds in the side of the stomach are not interfering with the proper assimilation of food going into it."

RECOVERY WILL BE SLOW. "The conference of physicians broke up at 3:15 a. m., and five minutes later Dr. Mynter left the house. "It's all good news," said he, "as he reached the street, where the newspaper men were congregated. "The action we took last night has proved beneficial, and I feel more confident of the president's recovery than at any time since he was shot. Everything is favorable, and we have tripled the amount of nourishment, giving him now three teaspoonfuls of beef juice every hour instead of one. But the president's recovery will be slow. All talk of his sitting up in a few days and leaving Buffalo in a week is nonsense. I shall be satisfied if he can be moved in six weeks."

Dr. Mynter said that Dr. Mann had taken out the stitches in the wound last night. He described the necessity for the action as an irritation of the skin not unusual in such cases. He said, generally speaking, that the president was doing excellently. He drank water freely, passed it freely, and the condition of his bowels was satisfactory.

THE DEATH PENALTY. NEW YORK, Sept. 11. - An interesting interview with W. W. Ewida, a criminal lawyer, who defended the Homestead strikers, comes from Minneapolis. Mr. Irwin said: "Under the common law in force in that state, which has not with reference to reason been modified by statute, it will adjudge the crime as an act of treason, the punishment of which is death. The state of New York will prosecute Czolgosz for treason in attempting the life of the sovereign executive recognized by New York, for he has committed common law treason against the high allegiance owed by all citizens of New York to the chief executive of the United States."

A MYSTERIOUS LEADER. NEW YORK, Sept. 11. - James M. Trimble of Newark, N. J., who has just completed his work as commissioner for the state of New Jersey, to inquire into the killing of King Humbert by Bresci, is quoted as saying: "My investigation of the Bresci affair has shown plainly that there is a man in this country who is the conspirator in all these assassinations. I cannot now give his name. I sent all the evidence to the Italian government. Who was it that gave to Bresci and his colleagues the money necessary for them to accomplish their acts of violence? The answer to this question will give the name of the most dangerous man in America today."

HE SAVED THE PRESIDENT. SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 10. - A fund for Jim Parker, the Negro who saved President McKinley's life, has been started in this city, the Herald being made custodian of the fund. The managers of the Grand Opera House have agreed to give 25 per cent of Wednesday night's performance to the cause.

Parker is a waiter, a giant in size, and one of the most good natured of men. He it was who knocked Czolgosz down and prevented him from firing a third shot. Parker had just shaken hands with the president a moment before, and when he heard the shots he wheeled and threw himself on Czolgosz with the fury of a tiger.

EMMA GOLDMAN ARRESTED. CHICAGO, Sept. 10. - Emma Goldman, the anarchist, who was said by Czolgosz to have inspired him, was arrested today. She denied that she was implicated in any plot to kill the president, and said she believed Czolgosz acted on his own responsibility. The president's life or death, she said, were matters of supreme indifference to her - she was an anarchist. - Czolgosz's act was foolish, and she believed it was inspired by the misery he saw around him. She denied that she saw him since July 22, when he was in company with her and Abraham Isaacs. The Chicago police think she and Isaacs were with Czolgosz in Chicago on August 18, and they are now seeking evidence to prove it. Miss Goldman says the police are making more friends for anarchy than the anarchists themselves could possibly do, and she has been an anarchist ever since the Haymarket affair in Chicago, and she has taught the creed of anarchy ever since.

BUFFALO, Sept. 10. - The Buffalo police have as yet made no request for the extradition of Emma Goldman. They want to give the police of Chicago ample time to make a full investigation at that end. Isaacs and the other anarchists under arrest in Chicago, will be held without bail pending further developments.

THE CHICAGO ANARCHISTS. CHICAGO, Sept. 11. - An application will be made today for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of the nine anarchists now under arrest, charged with conspiracy to murder the president. The names of Emma Goldman also probably will be included in the petition. Should the application for a writ be successful it probably would be made returnable Thursday morning, at which time all the defendants would be brought into court. In the evidence which can be produced to hold the prisoners, it is said the Chicago police have the following telegram from Buffalo chief of police: "Czolgosz was in Chicago August 18 in the company of Emma Goldman and Abraham Isaacs, at Isaacs's office." The Chicago police don't know on what evidence this statement is based, but take it for granted that it is a part of the confession of Czolgosz.

CZOLGOSZ'S DEFIANT MANNER. NEW YORK, Sept. 11. - A special to the Herald from Buffalo says: Mrs. Czolgosz, mother of the man who attempted to assassinate Pres. McKinley, was in Buffalo Monday. She made no attempt to see her son. When Dist. Atty. Penney asked Czolgosz if he wanted a lawyer he replied: "No, I want no lawyer now. When the time comes I will be supplied with counsel and there will be plenty of money for my defence."

GOVERNMENT WILL PROSECUTE. BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 11. - District Attorney Penney and Secretary of War Root will confer today on the legal steps to be taken for the prosecution of Leon Czolgosz and Emma Goldman. The police have encountered difficulty in finding any evidence to overt acts within the state of New York on the part of the Goldman woman, and seem inclined to favor her prosecution in the federal courts. It is expected that the conference between the secretary of war and district attorney will result in some definite plan of action. District Attorney Penney was seen by an Associated Press reporter at 11 o'clock. He was then on his way to see Secretary Root, and said: "We have not reached any decisions as to what our course will be, not can I tell you when we will decide. The statement that Czolgosz has made an offer and more complete confession implicating Emma Goldman or anyone else is not true. He still stands by his first story and insists that he alone is responsible. So far as I know there are no new developments in the case. The investigation is going along in a very satisfactory manner. The police are working industriously and there are many features of the case that are still in doubt."
