MRS. JEFFERSON DAVIS, WHO DIED A DAY OR TWO AGO IN NEW YORK

The widow of the president of the Confederate States passed away in her New York apartments after a week's serious illness. Following the close of the civil war, Mrs. Davis and her husband returned to their Mississippi home, Beauvoir, where they lived until the death of Mr. Davis.

GAMING CLUB RAIDED, WOMAN A PRISONER

Police of Netherlands' Town to be Prosecuted for Illegal Act.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 22.—A raid has been made on the Club International de Bienséance, an institution that was opened last spring nominally for the amusement of strangers in Holland, Captain Johnson, and his wife, have been arrested.

The club began operations last January by circulating broadsides inviting to become members at a subscription of $118. Its objects purported to be to yield an agreeable sojourn to strangers, and to offer aid to every stranger in the country in need of such.

Inclosed with the circular there was a leaflet which said: "Roulette: Minimum, 4 cents; maximum, $1,200." The club is held in a fine house in a leading street in Amsterdam. Legal proceedings were speedily begun against it on the ground that roulette was played. This case went in favor of the club, but the authorities were not satisfied, and now the place has been raided by the police.

Nearly twenty foreigners were found playing roulette. The prisoners, including Captain and Mrs. Johnson, were taken to the police station, where they were kept from 7 o'clock in the morning until 4 o'clock the following evening.

All the persons arrested have complained to their respective consulates, and the club intends to prosecute the authorities for committing an unlawful act.

Captain Johnson states that the club is the finest he has ever seen abroad. Nobody was pressed to play roulette, as there are many other amusements.

NEW CONSTITUTION FOR THE KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 22.—The amended constitution of the Supreme Lodge of Knights of Pythias was adopted today. Most important among the new provisions is one giving the endorsement rank a vote in the election of its major officers. Heretofore this officer has been named and elected by members of the Supreme Lodge. Hereafter he will be nominated by the general assembly of the endorsement rank. This nomination will then be laid before the supreme chancellor, and if he approves it, the Supreme Lodge will vote thereon.

The amended constitution retains the present age limit for entry.

Other amendments were adopted as reported on by the committee of the whole of the Supreme Lodge.

DESPOBENT HALIFAX SEA CAPTAIN SUICIDES

Nelson Payzant, for Many Years in Employ of Pickford & Black, Hangs Himself.

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 22.—Captain Nelson Payzant, who for years was one of the Pickford & Black's steamers, sailing out of Halifax, committed suicide this morning.

Deceased, who was 40 years of age, was a most capable officer in addition to being highly respected by all with whom he came in contact. Some seven years ago he was attacked with fever and rheumatism while away from home and could not return to Halifax for several months. Finally on his return his constitution was so weakened that he had to retire from the sea. Since that time he has been practically an invalid and had been unable to work for over six years.

Being out of employment and out of money, he finally became despondent. This morning his wife went down to a city firm with some work and on her return she opened the door to enter her apartments on the second story. The door would not open freely, but when she finally succeeded in getting in she received a terrible shock, for there behind the door was the body of her husband, suspended by the neck by a canvas belt, the other end of which was fastened to a nail above the door. She called for help but before it arrived she cut down the body in the hope that her husband was not yet dead. When the canvas was cut the body fell in a heap on the floor. The sight almost overcame Mrs. Payzant as she became fully conscious of the fact that her husband was dead.

WOODSMAN IS CHARGED WITH MANSLAUGHTER

NORWAY, Me., Oct. 22.—The trial of a woodsman charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Eugene Grant, a fellow logger, who was shot and killed at Hartford on April 3d last, began today in the Oxford county court, Judge Wiswell presiding.

The jury heard evidence from the jury of the arrest of Farringham while Sheriff McIntyre described the camp and the finding of a pool of blood near the door of one of the buildings. He admitted that when Grant's body was found there was a revolver grasped in the right hand.

NURSE GIRL CHLORFORMED AND CHILD ABDUCTED

Baby Boy Held to Millionaire Spirited Away From a Public Park.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—The police are trying to trace the kidnappers of a baby boy who is held to the fortune of a millionaire.

The child was spirited away from the Tuilleries Gardens in a very mysterious fashion. His mother, who lives opposite the gardens, sent the nurse out with the child for an airing. Some time after she went to a window, and to her horror, saw the nurse asleep on a bench, but no sign of the baby.

She rushed over to the gardens, and with considerable difficulty aroused the nurse. The girl said that a man had come up behind her as she held the baby in her arms, and put a chloroformed handkerchief over her face, after which she remembered no more.

The mother suspects her late husband's relatives, who live in Algeria. Her husband died intestate, and if it had not been for the birth of his posthumous child they would have shared his fortune.

WOMAN BETRAYED

BY SITTING ON A CHAIR

Passed as Countess and Borrowed Money on Strength of Bogus Legacy.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—A widow named Bouille has been sentenced to two years' imprisonment for committing swindles to the extent of $40,000.

She passed herself off as the Comtesse d'Aubigny, and on the strength of the statement that she would inherit $1,000,000 from her husband's people borrowed large sums.

The suspicions of a M. Chevalier, one of her victims, was aroused by a friend, who pointed out that the "Countess" sat on the edge of a chair. "No lady in high society," said the friend, "ever sits on the edge of a chair. She always sits in the middle."

Mme. Bouille had an accomplice called Modin, who made his escape before the warrant was out for his arrest. It was reported some time ago that Modin had died an Argentine (Calvados), but M. Chevalier affirmed during the case that he saw him in a cab at Paris the day before the trial. He attempted to follow him, but was unable to do so owing to a block in the traffic.

A fresh inquest is to be held on the body of the man found at Calvados.

TO LAND ENGLISH

MAILS AT NORTH SYDNEY

Orders Issued to I. C. R. Officials to Have Train Ready When Called For—Only a Temporary Arrangement.

HALIFAX, Oct. 22.—The Intercolonial Railway officials on the Cape Breton division have received orders to hold themselves in readiness for the landing of the English mails at North Sydney. This is the extent of the instructions received so far. It is learned that this arrangement will hold good until the close of the gulf navigation.

The steamers, after landing the mails at North Sydney, will proceed by the gulf to Montreal and land their passengers and cargoes there. Returning they probably will pick up passengers at North Sydney, although there is nothing definite as to this part of the arrangement.

The landing of the mails will be carried out pretty much the same as in the case of the Allan line. Virginian two years ago. A tender will meet the boats outside the harbor and convey the mails to the terminal wharf at North Sydney, where a special train will be waiting with orders to rush west with all possible speed. The train will be given a clear road, as it was in the case of the special carrying the Virginian's mails. It is thought that probably the first class passengers or such as want to get to their destination quickly will also be landed at North Sydney.

It is not known when the boat will arrive or which one it is. The officials have already carried out the department's instructions and everything is practically ready for the special run.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The Tangle correspondent of the Times says in a despatch that the local authorities, being powerless to take action, have invited the bandit Rastul to restore order in Arzilia.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Col. N. P. Thompson, of Chattanooga, Tenn., called at the White House tonight and suggested to the president that the idle negroes in the south be utilized for labor on the Panama Canal. "The better class of negroes in the south," he explained, would aid the white people in securing this class of labor for that work. It is the idle negro that makes the trouble in the south and reflects on the better class of negroes. Their presence interferes with the introduction of foreign immigrants.

"The president was impressed with the suggestion and asked me to talk with Secretary Taft and Chairman Shonts of the Panama Canal commission on the subject. I will call on them tomorrow."
