THANKS CRAWFORD MAY BE A DETECTIVE BYE AND BYE

Mr. Mullin Objects to London's Alleged Confession, But Judge Forbes Admits it as Evidence—Hearing in the Stealing Case Still Going On

In the County Court this morning, the case of Wm. Golding and Joseph London, was taken up. Golding was on the stand and he held up under right cross-examination. Mr. Mullin and Officer Crawford had a few tilts and Judge Forbes was called upon to settle many questions of counsel.

Officer Crawford, who was being examined by the court adjourned on Saturday, was recalled. The witness on Saturday offered evidence of an admission made by London when he was arrested. Daniel Mullin, counsel for the defense, contended that this evidence should not be allowed. The point was unsettled, and the witness stated that he would settle the dispute in court this morning.

Mr. Mullin cited several cases where evidence of confessions was submitted and not allowed. He contended that Officer Crawford held out inducements to Golding to make the latter confess. The cases cited showed that a person in authority who makes an inducement to a prisoner, shall not give evidence telling how these confessions were made.

Judge Forbes stated that he had fully considered the matter and he had decided to allow the statements of Officer Crawford to be taken as evidence. Mr. Skinner stated that he would not press that the statements be included in evidence, as it was of little concern to him. He had plenty of evidence for the crown besides that.

The examination of Officer Crawford was then taken up. The witness in answer to a question by Mr. Mullin, said that Mrs. Wood gave him a description of the men who robbed her. Mr. Mullin asked the witness if he went to see a young man who stopped at the Windsor Hotel, in connection with the robbery.

Mr. Mullin—Did you read in the morning papers that a brother of Jack McLean was under suspicion?

Witness—No.
Mr. Mullin—Did you read in the papers of the robbery?

Witness—"I don't remember whether I did or not."
Mr. Mullin—"Surely you read of your own exploits?"

Judge Forbes—"Now Mr. Mullin this must stop. You must use the witness in a respectful way."

Mr. Mullin—"I am giving the officer as much respect as he deserves."

Mr. Mullin in the course of a few remarks intimated that Officer Crawford was not yet a detective, but he might develop into one some day.

Mr. Skinner did not think this a proper remark. In reply to a question from Judge Forbes, Mr. Mullin said he did not remember what Golding said when being arrested. Crawford stated that John Beckwith told him that London and Golding had committed the robbery.

Mr. Mullin followed with his opening address to the jury. He pointed out that the evidence which had been submitted was circumstantial. It had been proved that London was not in the vicinity of Lelander and Sydney streets on the night of the robbery.

He described the home of his client, Wm. Golding. The latter resided on Brussels street with his mother who is an invalid. On the night of the robbery, the prisoner was at his home. He remained in his mother's room until about 9.30 o'clock on Good Friday night. He then went out and arrived at the Everyday Club a few minutes later. He remained there until about 10.30 o'clock when he left for home. He met London on the way and the two went to the Victoria Hotel for a drink. "I might here state," said Mr. Mullin, "that the two prisoners were not the only ones in the bar at the time. He knew of a young man named McLaughlin who was in the bar" (Continued on Page 5.)

THE CROCKET DECISION
DUE THIS AFTERNOON

FREDERICTON, N. B., June 3.—The police magistrate announced this morning that he had not yet received from the court stenographer a copy of the depositions in the Emerson-Crocket libel case, and he would adjourn the same until 2.30 this afternoon.

Three young boys named Ryan, Allen and Kitchen, were before the magistrate this morning charged with breaking into the premises of Randolph and Sons and stealing a quantity of goods and a bicycle. They were remanded until Wednesday for sentence.

The Scott Act case against Hayes of Tay Creek, was dismissed for want of evidence.

The funeral of the late John Walsh took place at 2.30 this afternoon from his late residence, Elm street, to the Cathedral, where it was buried. A child of the janitor was overcome by smoke and burned to death.

FIRE ON STNR OCEANIC DID MUCH DAMAGE

Steering Machinery Destroyed—Together With a Large Quantity of the Cargo

NEW YORK, June 3.—The fire on the steamer Oceanic, which was discovered this morning at about one o'clock, was not brought under control for two hours. The crew was called to quarters and did what it could to extinguish the flames but when they spread to the cargo outside aid had to be called. In the after-hold were 1,870 barrels of goods, which burned like oil and that part of the cargo was a flame. It was below the water and there was nothing spectacular about the blaze. The crew closed the after compartment and then the flames were destroyed in addition to a quantity of freight. Among the cargo was some theatrical scenery belonging to Forbes Robertson, who recently left for England after a successful season in America, and this is said to have been burned or damaged. The origin of the fire is unknown but the suspicion was prevalent today that it was the result of incendiarism. The loss will reach several thousand dollars. It was stated that the sailing of the steamer Wednesday will not be delayed.

Two Accidents at the Collieries—A Hay
Famine in North Sydney.

INVERNESS, C. B., June 3.—An accident occurred at the colliery here yesterday and three men are injured as a result. John Leane, son of Captain John Leane, of Bras D'Or and Alex. McEneaney, of Newfoundland, are injured but not seriously.

CLAREMONT, N. S., June 3.—One of the large boilers at Dominion No. 2 engine house exploded yesterday morning and caused considerable damage. Two men, John Davis and E. Kiah Ivory, were terribly scalded about the face and head.

The men were removed to St. Joseph's Hospital. The damage to machinery is quite serious.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 3.—There is a hay famine in North Sydney just now and prospects are that there will not be relief for some time. Several men have been sent to the hay fields in Sydney and one teamster whose supply had run low, was obliged to go to country districts to get sufficient to tide him over a few days.

And Also Saves Amateur Actors Some Delay in Printer's Ink—A Liquor Dealer Fooled by the Court.

MONCTON, N. B., June 3.—Non-enforcement of the Scott Act in Moncton was severely criticized by Magistrate Kay in his sermon this morning. The court this morning, and incidentally A. Landry was sentenced to a month in jail, without the option of a fine, it being the first case disposed of for some time. For several months Magistrate Kay has been imposing fifty dollar fines and in expectation of this Landry, who is the proprietor of the Riverside Hotel, pleaded guilty. The magistrate in passing sentence said the act was not being properly enforced in the city and it was the duty of the court to help them.

Nine local runners have entered for the ten mile road race, which will take place today at the luncheon given at the Wesley Memorial church last evening. Rev. H. E. Thomas assailed circus and theatricals, criticizing amateur dramatic and operatic performances as well as claiming that their influence upon the lives of the people were lowering and harmful.

The men were removed to St. Joseph's Hospital. The damage to machinery is quite serious.

REV. C. W. GORDON BEFORE THE CANADIAN CLUB

The great popular thy Rev. C. W. Gordon, of Winnipeg, has attained in St. John as a speaker was well exemplified today at the luncheon given at White's restaurant by the Canadian Club. Mr. Gordon was the speaker of the occasion, and his audience, composed of business men, professional men, in short, men representative of the best of St. John, was very large for the luncheon were sold and the dining hall was crowded to the utmost.

After the luncheon Rev. Father Gaynor, who occupied the chair, called the meeting to order. The guest of the day was unanimously elected an honorary member of the club. Father Gaynor briefly introduced Mr. Gordon, who rose to speak and applause.

Rev. Mr. Gordon was greeted with hearty applause from the large gathering. He stated that as those present were mostly all business men it would not be advisable at that hour of the day to detain them any longer than was necessary. He thought the Canadian Club a grand organization. Residents of this city should know all about the Dominion, and he advised those present not to confine their knowledge to the winterport city only.

Speaking of St. John as a winter port, Mr. Gordon said he hoped the city would succeed in having the harbor so improved that it would be one of the finest in the world. He understood that the shipping facilities here were very good. The speaker mentioned that a person cannot be a good and loyal Canadian, in the full sense of the word, unless he has travelled and seen for himself that great country which lies west of the lakes. There are two things which Canadians should do. They are to make themselves posted on all Canadian affairs and to own "this folk."

Out of which they can secure valuable information about Canada. The speaker mentioned that Canada's imports and exports have reached the high mark of $600,000,000. The United States combined import and exports amount up into the billions, but when this matter is looked into it will be found that the larger population of the States is wholly responsible for this difference.

Mr. Gordon went on to say that Canadians should not look upon their country as being small because her sister nation's foreign business is so much larger, because Canada is growing and it should be the aim of every Canadian to make her one of the foremost nations of the world.

Mr. Gordon was well received by the Canadian Club and his speech was very well received.

THIRTY THOUSAND CHINESE
REBELS ARE UNDER ARMS

Six Hundred Were Killed in a Battle With the Troops, But are Gathering Strength and Will Continue the Fight.

CHINA—June 3.—The conditions at Chang Chow, of which Amoy is the port, and at Sioche, are unsettled. Many refugees continue to arrive here and numbers of missionaries of all denominations have reached Swatow. Quiet is maintained there, though there is great anxiety as to the outcome of the revolt in the surrounding country. The rebel leaders allow no looting and no foreigners have been molested so far as known. There is a small American mission at Chang Chow.

The centre of the uprising is at Jun, 30 miles southwest of Amoy. The officials there arrested the leaders of an organization known as the "White Fank," charging them falsely with being pirates. The prisoners escaped, collected their followers, killed the prefect and other officials and held the local magistrate as a hostage. Emboldened by their success, thirty thousand rebels gathered and threatened Chio Chow Fu. Troops were hurried from Canton and Fu Chow and engaged the rebels yesterday between Swatow and Amoy, with the result that six hundred of the latter were killed.

The government loss is not known. The rebels withdrew, but were not dispersed and are rapidly recruiting.

The correspondent of the Associated Press is in a position to confirm the statement that the outbreak is not anti-foreign, but anti-dynastic. The White Fank are a revolutionary organization and without blocking a road, capable of being mobilized at a moment's notice. In an interview, Capt. Kock said: "The best soldiers in my army were the women. I had a division of women led by women officers and they did splendid service and were sometimes braver than the men. I rejoice to think of my women troops. They were the best shots and runners. The women soldiers in the Red Guard were the working women, domestic servants, and peasant girls. We had a strong army which was excellently equipped."

In telling how his country was relieved of Russian oppression by general strike and without bloodshed, Capt. Kock said: "We disarmed the Russian police and soldiers, and banished them from our country. The women played a most important part in this work. Our women are great and brave."

Capt. Kock says he organized the military in the Sverborg fortress but failed in his project there because the navy did not join and bombard the works. For his part in the enterprise Kock had to leave the country.

Dave Hennessy in Jail for the 40th Time
—Magistrate Wants to Know Who Sells Liquor on Sundays.

In the police court this morning Thomas Keating was fined $4 for drunkenness and $15 for resisting the police, and in default of payment was sent to jail for two months. A man named Magee who did not assist Police-man Hamm in making the arrest but from his actions is said by the officer to have been somewhat responsive to Keating's arrest was not in court.

Capt. Keating gave her husband in charge and then assisted him in resisting. He was sentenced this morning. After he was sentenced this morning Mr. Keating pleaded with the court for her husband's release, stating that although she gave him in charge he was wrongfully arrested. As she left the court said she would get Mr. Magee. The magistrate told the woman to find out where her husband got the liquor after his arrest. It would be better to let him clear if the guilty person who gave him the liquor could be prosecuted.

David Hennessy was sent to jail for the 40th time, having been arrested Sunday morning. The magistrate said it was not Hennessy who was wanted in court but the person who gave him the liquor.

Paul Jones, a Russian was charged with drunkenness in the I. C. R. depot Saturday. The Russian was cazed with liquor. He did not wait to pull the cork, but as quickly as possible bit the neck off the glass bottle and poured the liquor down his throat. He was enroute from Halifax to Boston and has been robbed of $16, a valise and an umbrella. He was allowed to go with the understanding that he leave the town this afternoon.

Two drunks failed to appear in court and forfeited deposits of $5 each. The magistrate said that every Monday morning there are a number of arrests for drunkenness and he has asked the police to find out where the unfortunate get the liquor, but there is never a report against the persons who sell the goods.

FORMERLY WELL KNOWN PUGILIST IS DEAD

NEW YORK, June 3.—Barney Aron, old time lightweight pugilist was buried Sunday from his home here. He died on Thursday in a sanitarium on Long Island, where he was taken about a year ago, having been broken down physically. Aron was 77 years old. Like his father before him, Barney Aron was a great bare-knuckle fighter in his prime, having beaten every man of his weight in his native England. After Aron came to this country his greatest fight was a seventeen round battle with Archer Chambers, at Mississippi City, in 1878. For years Aron acted as announcer at the race tracks in this vicinity.

No. 1 storm signal was ordered to be up at noon, indicating a storm from an easterly direction. This means wind and rain.
