- 1. The real property of the union situate in the junior township shall become the property of the junior township;
- 2. The real property of the union situate in the remaining township or townships of the union shall be the property of the remaining township or townships;
- 3. The two corporations shall be jointly interested in the other assets of the union, and the same shall be retained by the one, or shall be divided between both, or shall be otherwise disposed of, as they may agree;
- 4. The one shall pay or allow to the other, in respect of the said disposition of the real and personal property of the union, and in respect to the debts of the union, such sum or sums of money as may be just;
- 5. In case the councils of the townships do not, within three months after the first meeting of the council of the junior township, agree as to the disposition of the personal property of the union, or as to the sum to be paid by the one to the other, or as to the times of payment thereof, the matters in dispute shall be settled by arbitration under this Act;
- 6. The amount so agreed upon or settled shall bear interest from the day on which the union was dissolved; and shall be provided for by the council of the indebted township like other debts. 46 V. c. 18, s. 30.

A COMPANY OF THE STATE OF THE S

- Note.—This section applies to the case of an incorporated village becoming separated from a township or townships. See sec. 11. In case the councils of the townships, or village and townships, do not agree upon the disposition of the personal property of the union and the adjustment of other assets of the union within three months from the first meeting of the junior township, the matters in dispute must be settled by arbitration.
- 31. In case a township is laid out by the Crown in an incorporated county or union c' counties, or in case there is any township therein not incorporated and not belonging to an incorporated union of townships, the council of the county or united counties shall, by by-law, unite such townships, for municipal purposes, to some adjacent incorporated township, or union of townships in the same county or union of counties. 46 V. c. 18, s. 31.
