

party or parties, at least twenty-one days before the day of presenting such petition, it shall be the duty of any such Court of Queen's Bench to make an order to quash ^{What relief the Court may grant.} all writs of execution, and all proceedings under colour of any judgment or judgments, or of such writs and process by which such petitioner may be disturbed in or deprived of the enjoyment and possession of any real property so by him claimed, held, occupied and enjoyed under the said Statute, as heir, devisee, donee or grantee of his father or mother, being aliens; and upon the making of the said order all proceedings whatever under such judgments, writs and process shall surcease and determine, and the said writs and process shall be quashed, annulled and set aside.

3. And be it enacted, That nothing in ^{Such parties not to be relieved from the payment of costs incurred previously,} this Act contained shall prevent any remedy at law which any party may now have, to enforce the payment of costs awarded under and by virtue of any judgment or judgments against any other party naturalized under the said Statute and otherwise entitled to claim the protection of this Act, but that every remedy which the party having an award of costs now hath or is entitled to exercise, shall continue to be exercised in the same manner and form as if this Act had never been passed.
