

the rights and privileges of Her Majesty the Queen, Her Heirs and Successors, nor of any person or persons, body politic or corporate, in any of the things therein-mentioned, (except as to the power and authority hereby given to the said Marc Antoine Primeaux and Antoine A. Trottier, their heirs and legal representatives, and except as to the rights which are hereby expressly altered and extinguished,) but that Her Majesty, the Queen, Her Heirs and Successors, and all and every person or persons, body politic or corporate, their heirs and assigns, executors and administrators, shall have and exercise the same rights (with the exceptions aforesaid) as they and each of them had before the passing of this Act, to every effect and purpose whatsoever, and in as ample a manner as if this Act had never been passed.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That the penalties hereby imposed, shall, upon proof of the offence, respectively, before any one or more of the Justices of the Peace for the said District of Montreal, either by the confession of the offender, or by the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, (which oath such Justice is hereby empowered and required to administer,) be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such offender, by Warrant signed by such Justice or Justices of the Peace, and the overplus, after such penalties and the charges of such distress and sale are deducted, shall be returned, upon demand, to the owner of such goods and chattels; and one half of such penalties, respectively, when paid and levied, shall belong to Her Majesty, and the other half to the person suing for the same, in every case where they are not hereinbefore given to the proprietors of the Bridge and Road aforesaid.

Penalties how recoverable.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That the moneys to be levied by virtue of this Act, and Money levied by this Act, and not grant-
