

Macdonald Monument.

This magnificent statue, which cost over $25,000, is erected in Dominion Square, to commemorate the memory of Canada's gifted Premier, the late Sir John A. Macdonald.

Nelson's Monument.

Who has not heard of Nelson, the hero of Trafalgar Bay, the idol of the English people. In memory of his brilliant deeds of valor, this monument was erected in the year 1809, by the French and English merchants of that period. The column is 60 feet in height and 5 feet in diameter. The figure on the top is 8 feet in height. During the last few months it has undergone extensive repairs and improvements.
