A LOVELY BABY BOY

This Mother is quite Enthusiastic over a well Known Food.

Mrs. J. W. Pateman, 34 Harriet St., Toronto, in writing about Neave's Food says "When I first knew one of my friends, her baby Jack was eight months old and dying by inches. She had tried three foods because her Jack could not digest milk. At last, I fetched her a tin of Neave's Food. At the end of a month, Jack was rapidly gaining flesh and was bright and happy. He is a lovely boy now and she declares Neave's Food saved his life. And it did."

Then I recommended it to a friend on Victoria Avenue. She had a baby 6 months old that was not thriving a bit. She put the baby on Neave's Food and at the end of three months, the baby was twice the size.

I have never seen two bigger, stronger boys than mine for their ages and we owe it all to Neave's Food. I have the utmost faith in Neave's Food."

Mothers and prospective mothers may obtain a free tin of Neave's Food and a valuable book "Hints About Baby" by writing Edwin Utley, 14 Front Street East, Toronto, who is the Canadian agent. (Mention this paper.) For sale by all druggists.

Same Line of Business.—"It seems strange that he could plunder a great corporation like that for years without being found out."

"Well, you see, the corporation was pretty busy itself."—Chicago Journal.

Just in Time.—One day, returning from a hunting trip with the usual accompaniment of an empty bag, it occurred to him that his wife would make fun of him if he returned without even one proof of his oft-boasted skill. So he purchased a brace of partridges to deceive his trusting spouse. As he threw them on the table in front of her he observed:

"Well, my dear, you see I am not so awkward with the gun after all."

"Dick," replied the wife, turning from the birds with a grimace, after a brief examination, "you were quite right in shooting these birds to-day; to-morrow it would have been too late."

What's in a Name?

Dey call him "Bash" to rhyme with gash, and "Balk to rhyme with chalk;

Dey call him "Bosh" to rhyme with—gosh, I never heard such talk!

I thought I'd find some pupils in America, but ah,

Mein Gott! How can a fellow play who can't pronounce it "Bach."

—Chicago Record-Herald.

A Favourite Death.—The fervent temperance spellbinder stopped in the midst of his campaign speech.

"My friends," he said impressively, "if all the saloons were at the bottom of the sea what would be the inevitable result?"

And from the rear came the loud and emphatic answer: "Lots of people would get drowned."—The Argonaut.

The Reason.—Jack (whose twin has been isolated owing to measles)—"When's Teddy coming back to sleep, Bee?"

Bee—"Why? Do you miss him awfully?"

Jack (promptly)—"Rather! Only this morning I turned over to biff him in the eye and he wasn't there!"

A Disagreeable Trait.—"Can she keep a secret?"

"Yes, the disagreeable thing."—Detroit Free Press.

Will be Tame.—"Do you think your wife will be happy when she gets the vote?"

"I'm afraid she won't," replied Mr. Meekton. "Merely going to the polls and casting a ballot will seem pretty tame compared to organizing these great suffrage demonstrations."—Washington "Star."

Legal Magic.—A Canadian named Morgan was appointed to a Government place which technically had to be occupied by a lawyer, which Mr. Morgan was not.

The benchers of the Law Society, however, undertook to obviate the technicality, and appointed one of their number to examine Morgan as to his knowledge of the law.

"Tell us, Mr. Morgan," said the examiner, "what do you know about the law, anyway?"

"To tell the truth," was the modest response of Morgan, "I don't know a single thing."

Whereupon the examiner intimated that the questioning was at an end. He turned in his affidavit, wherein it was stated:—

"I have examined Mr. Morgan as to his knowledge of the law, and to the best of my knowledge and belief he has answered all the questions with entire correctness."

A Thoughtless Spouse.—Mrs. Newlywed—"I wonder why we are growing tired of each other."

Newlywed—"I haven't an idea." Mrs. N.—"Yes; maybe that is the reason."—Boston "Transcript."

LOOK FOR THE SHEEP ON EVERY GARMENT

TWELVE suits of ordinary Underwear can be made in the time it takes us to make one suit of "CEETEE" Underclothing.

"CEETEE" Underclothing is made on special machines, entirely different from ordinary knitting machines, and which are the only machines of their type in Canada.

"CEETEE" Underclothing costs a little more but is most economical.

All "CEETEE" Underclothing is made from the softest, finest Australian Merino Wool only. This wool is put through a thorough treatment of combings and scourings that removes every particle of foreign matter and leaves every strand as soft and clean as humanly possible.

"CEETEE" Underclothing is so soft that it will not irritate even an infant's skin. All joins are knitted together (not sewn) making each garment practically one piece. It has no rough spots. Every garment is fashioned automatically during the knitting to fit the human form, thus rendering it comfortable, easy to wear, and perfect fitting.

These are the reasons why "CEETEE" Underclothing is in a class by itself, and is Worn by the Best People. Sold by the Best Dealers.
