

ple tired
ave been
ing like,
mal that
ind."
make us
aturalists
atement
s, lions,
inds of
vn. None,
atic about
nkey, the
st Sarah
Herdee)
ant amle
control of
o bite to
this pre-
the troop
rying to
de, but
hen mate
ch. Hrdy
practice
aving his
o on the
ossible.

b a bank,
where the
ldn't you
he bank?
real guys
nd. They
n Toronto
$10,000
he two
ng out of
stop at a
to buy a
re in and
y-car was
who went
away for
ewscript)
CFTR,

Americans
urse on
Oakland
ng ancient

y will not
until the
some 18
t between
d. Oakland
promised
e remains
ogists want
ones for at
The Indians
skeletons
Pleasant,

ilities Com-
ly ordered
junk calls
at the end
an forces
p hooking
dial your
ape-record-

t exactly
s illegal,
n, the ban
companies
yone using
s and the
is Commis-
r possible
controlling
t)

CBC STEREO comes to New Brunswick on 101.5 FM

CBC Stereo has arrived. A very special blend of Music Arts News for you to enjoy through the full, rich stereo sound of FM radio.

CBC Stereo wraps you in Music that's as old or as new as your choice. From Classics to Jazz, through Showtunes, Opera, Folk or Rock, presented in concert, recital, festival — recorded on stereo tape, on disc or live!

Arts on CBC Stereo take you on stage or behind the scenes of a traditional play or a modern drama.

Travel across Canada to our cultural showcases, catch a well-known reviewer, or love/hate a critic.

Choose a little variety!

And then, there's News. CBC Radio News. The most comprehensive broadcast news service in Canada brings you the day's national and international news on The World at Eight in the morning and on The World At Six each evening.

Sign on to sign off, regular news updates keep you in touch as it happens.

Sundays at noon, Sunday Magazine, a 90 minute in-depth weekly news review, brings you the newsmakers in stereo.

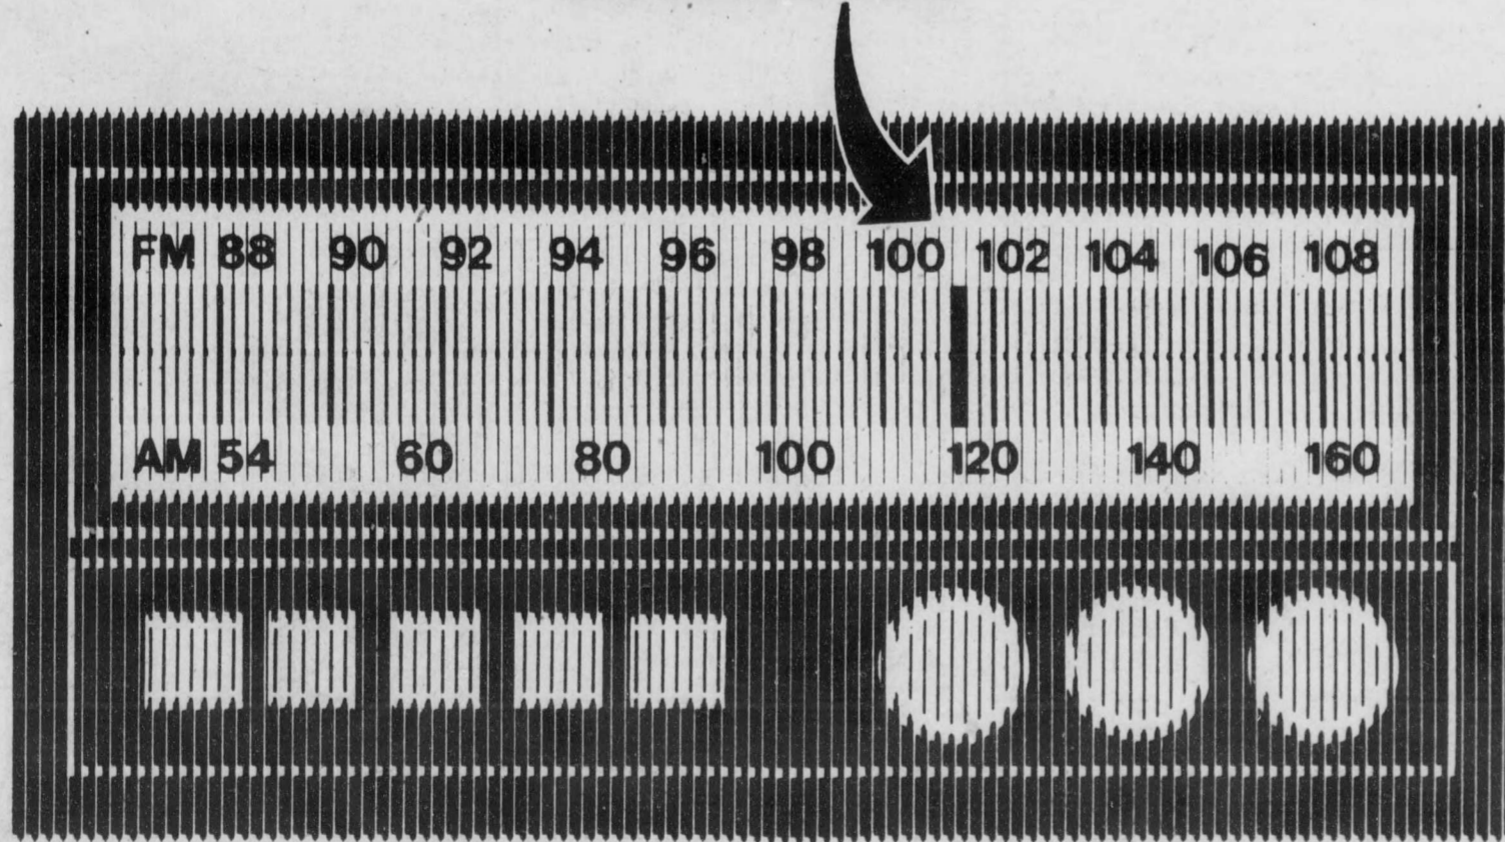

Canadian Broadcasting Corporation

Société Radio Canada

101.5 FM

CBC STEREO Music, Arts, News - Your Choice!