September 18th 1914.

Charles Jamieson an Indian living at Quathiaski Cove has written to me regarding two shipments of codfish and devil fish in October last which he shipped for one Lewis Gee also an Indian.

Mr MacLennan Chief of Police for ~~VICTORIA~~ Vancouver sent him a letter stating that he had sent an officer to examine into this matter and that you showed him two receipts one for $10.00 on account and a second for $10.25 in full of account.

Would you kindly send these receipts to me so that I may make enquiry into this matter. I will be personally responsible for these receipts.

Your obedient servant,

W. M. MacLennan
Indian Agent.
