Ladies and Gentlemen -

Again my great pleasure on behalf of the committee to extend a hearty welcome to all present this evening as far as possible it is exceedingly gratifying to see so many members present and to feel that I still belong to this class of '95 but at the same time it is not without regret that many of the faces of many who in the last 12 years have been present with us on occasions of this kind. In having the ^{annual} election of officers at this meeting your committee had two aims in view. The one being of course, to elect ~~abroad~~ elect a new committee for the coming year and ~~for~~ the other, by no means less important, to have a social reunion of the class. To what degree both these aims may be accomplished will depend upon yourselves. If we are to elect our officers this evening will depend upon the way in which you conduct the election and are to have a social evening will depend on whether you ~~will try to make it so~~ ~~or not~~ ~~as a social gathering~~ I would ask that every one would keep these two
