

fenced in by you with a division fence from your garden to the said stables, and further that at a Council held on the 22nd May last, at which you were present, it was agreed that the stable and small yard in front of it should belong to the store, and be used by the lessee thereof, who was to pay for the fencing.

In these circumstances it does not appear that you have any just cause of complaint, and therefore nothing can be done for you in the matter.

I am,

Sir,

Your Obedient Servant.

W. Buchanan,
Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.
