

C 271791

FEC-RESTRICTED

carrying out the terms of surrender as the Supreme Commander may direct.

9. All records of military registration of demobilized personnel from the Army, Navy, Air Forces, gendarmerie and secret police should be confiscated and transferred to the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers for subsequent destruction after they have served their purpose in achieving the objectives or the occupation.

10. Reestablishment of the following should be prohibited: the War and Navy Ministries, the Japanese Imperial High Command, the Supreme Military Council, the Council of Marshals and Admirals, the Inspectorate of Military Training, the Japanese Imperial General Headquarters, the Naval General Headquarters, the Headquarters of Armies and Fleets, and also any military or para-military organizations, military academies and schools, military scientific and research institutions and military laboratories, as well as the Officers Corps in any form. Such demobilization agency as is retained for the purpose of demobilizing returning Japanese Armed Forces should be of a civilian character and should be abolished immediately after completion of the demobilization. The former Japanese demobilization system involving special privileges of demobilized members of the Japanese armed forces should also be abolished.

11. All military and para-military organizations in Japan, including ex-Officers organizations, together with their affiliates and the clubs which were used for making propaganda for militarism and ultra-nationalism should be dissolved and their revival or establishment in any form, including a disguised form, should be prohibited. The application of this paragraph should extend also to various associations created under the guise of production associations, such as cooperative societies for joint cultivation of land for fishing, and others, which are composed wholly or substantially of ex-officers of the Army and Navy and headed by their former military commanders. This paragraph should apply also to any other associations ostensibly created for legitimate purposes, but which are, in reality, disguised forms of military or para-military organizations.

12. Military training of the civilian population and military instruction in schools should be prohibited.

13. For the purpose of prevention of the revival of Japanese militarism the following should not be nominated or employed in the government service, public office, or educational institutions except for such purposes as may be necessary for carrying out the terms of surrender prior to their demobilization:

a. Generals, Admirals, and all other senior officers, and all career officers of the Army, Navy, and gendarmerie;

b. Other officers of the Army, Navy and gendarmerie, including members of the reserve, if their employment would harm the cause of peace and security; and

c. Officials of ex-officers' and other military and para-military associations and of bodies closely associated with the armed forces.

The Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers may authorize the nomination or employment of a person coming with categories
