

MRS. W. E. SANFORD
Treasurer

of International Council, and Chairman of the Committee on Peace and Arbitration of the Council. Honorary President of the National Council of Women of the United States.

SANFORD, MRS. W. E., widow of the late Hon. W. E. Sanford, of the Senate of Canada; Treasurer of the International Council of Women; a Vice-President of the Canadian National Council, and President of the Hamilton Local Council. In her extensive travels Mrs. Sanford has had unusual opportunities of studying questions relating to the welfare of women. Besides many private benefactions, she maintains "Elsinore," a rest home for needy convalescent women and children, situated at Hamilton Beach.

OGILVIE GORDON, MRS. MARIA M., D.Sc., Ph.D., F.L.S., F.R.P.S., eldest daughter of the late Rev. Alex. Ogilvie, M.A.,

MRS. OGILVIE GORDON
Corresponding Secretary

L.L.D., Aberdeen. Married, 1895, Dr. John Gordon, Aberdeen; educated at Ladies' College, Edinburgh (Dux Medallist and Traveling Scholar); Gold Medallist in Zoology and Comparative Anatomy under Sir E. Ray Lankester, University College, London, 1889-90; graduated D.Sc., 1893, London University, studied Geology and Palaeontology, Munich University, 1891-95, and was awarded the Ph.D. degree with the highest honours in 1900 when the degree was for the first time conferred by that University on women; was elected Fellow of the Linnean Society of London in 1906 when that Society for the first time admitted women Fellows, and a Fellow of the Royal Physical Society on the first admission of women Fellows in 1909. Is a Vice-President of the National Council of Women of Great Britain and Ireland; a Vice-President of the Scottish Association for Promotion of Women's Public Work, and Hon. Corresponding Secretary to the International Council of Women, 1904-1909.