FOREMAN IMPORTERS OF FINE LINEN

The sales of Linen thus far during this February Linen Sale are the greatest on record. Little wonder this sale has been so successful when you consider the rich and exclusive patterns, the high quality and the lowness of price of the linens. We would suggest that you visit this store often during the next ten days while the linens are in the Millinery show rocms and while they may be seen to the best of advantage, and then if you would save money on linen such opportunities as the present occur seldom during the year, note the savings and then put our statements to test by inspecting the

IMITATING THE JAMES GANG.

Chicago, Feb. 18.—Twelve men were held up by six armed robbers in the office of Max Mildenberg, Clybourne Place and Hawthorne street. The highwaymen fired several shots as they entered, wounding two persons. They knocked another unconscious with a blow from a revolver. They then took more than $800 and escaped.

They then took more than soot and escaped.

There were four men in the office when the robbers entered. Without warning the six robbers appeared and began firing. Julius Bensey, a clerk, and Mildenberg, dropped to the floor to escape the bullets, but two foremen were struck and slightly wounded. After the shooting the robbers ordered the four men to hold ly wounded. After the shooting the robbers ordered the four men to hold up their hands.

At this point eight of the drivers and fillers who were in a barn at the rear ran in. Revolvers were pointed at them and they were told to "line up" against the wall.

While two of the robbers kepf the victims in subjection, the other four took Bensey into the inner office and ordered him to open the sale, An inner compartment remained locked, which contained only the private papers of the proprietor Bensey was commanded to open this and when he sald he could not two of the robbers struck him with their revolvers, making him unconscious. They then carried him to the outer office, where they forced the twelve men to his face downward on the floor until they could be searched. When they secured all the plunder they could find the robbers ran out.

Team Frozer to Death.

Kinmount, Feb. 26.—The other evening W. McNish and Archie McArthur, two young men who live, at Long Point, Fenelon Township, left Fenelon Founship, left Fenelon Founship, left Fenelon Founship, left Fenelon Falls for home with two teams and sleighs. It is said they were the worse of liquor. They both rode in McArthur's sleigh, and McNish's team was tied behind. While going across a 3-mile stretch of Balsam Lake the fie line came undone and the team that was being led wandered off on the lake. The night was very cold, and stormy, and the animals got stuck in the deep snow and were frozen to death.

As to instrict Homes.

London, Feb. 20. Temperative reformers are indignant at Justice Wills for laying down the apinion that homes for instricts are perfectly useless. An experienced London police court missionary says the judge is right to a certain point, such as that reformatories, whether maintained by the Government or by private philanthrepists; are useless to reciaim habitual drunkards. But a surpristing measure of success is obtained in preventing men from becoming chronic drunkards when their detention has begun early enough.

Baby Born With Two Heads.

North Tonawanda, Feb. 20.—Facts were made public yesterday of the birth of a boy last Wednesday who lived until Saturday morning, with two heads and necks, and one body from the shoulders to the walst line. Below the waist there was also a double formation, with four legs. The child had but two arms. It weighed ten pounds.

New York, Feb. 20.—The fruit steamer Lillie arrived yesterday from Bort Antonio, brought six of the crew of the abandoned schooner Ida C. Southard, which was previously reported lost on Feb. 9, after a terrific battle with the sea.

Breckville, Feb. 18.—Timethy Jente, a pioneer steambeat engineer on the St. Lawrence and Rideau Lakes, died here yesterday after a lingaring illness. He was engineer many years for the Brockville waterworks. Mrs. Jente dieu in September last within a short period of the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. He leaves three sons, N. T., Hamilton; Dr. C. P., London, and W. J., Brockville.

Washington, Feb. 18.—To several congressmen President Roosevelt said yesterday, that he hoped the pending maral appropriation bill would provide for three battleships, instead of two, as the measure now stands, saying he thought it unfortunate not to carry into effect the program for the building up of the new navy and that retreachments might better be made in other departments.

Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 18.—Mrs., Cassie L. Chadwick was present yesterday at the bankruptcy hearing connected with her affairs. She was attired in the same handsome brown costume that she wore when she appeared in court on her arrival from New York to plead to the charges against her. Apparently she was in against her. Apparently she was in excellent health.
