

Right to use
Designation
Chartered Accountant, etc.

11a. No person shall be entitled to take or use the designation "Chartered Accountant" or the initials "C. A.," "F. C. A.," "A. C. A.," or "C. A. A.," either alone or in combination with any other words nor shall he use any name, title or description implying that he is a member of the Institute unless he is a member of the Institute in good standing and registered as such. Provided, that any firm of Chartered Accountants whose Head Office is outside the Province of British Columbia but who maintain an office and practice within the Province, shall be entitled to take and use the designation "Chartered Accountants," and the initials "C. A.," and to practice as such, but only if at least one member of such firm and the Manager thereof for British Columbia are members of the Institute and at least one of such members or said Manager permanently resides in British Columbia; provided, that if the said member or Manager of such firm who is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of British Columbia, should die or resign from such firm, the said firm shall be entitled to continue the use of such designations, provided that another member or Manager of such firm becomes a member of the said Institute within six months of the death or resignation of such member."

Penalty.

11b. Every person who contravenes any of the provisions of the last preceding section, shall for every such contravention, be liable to summary conviction and to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Register.

11c. The Council shall cause to be kept by the Secretary or other Officer appointed for the purpose a book or register in which shall be correctly entered in alphabetical order, the names of all members in good standing and those members only whose names are entered in the book or register aforesaid, shall be deemed entitled to the privilege of membership in the Institute, and such book or register shall at all times be subject to inspection by any person, free of charge.

Register to be Evidence.

11d. Such book or register or copy of the same duly certified by the Secretary, shall be prima facie evidence in all Courts and before all persons that the persons whose names are entered are members of the Institute in good standing, and the absence of the name of any person from such register shall be prima facie evidence that such person is not a member of the Institute."

Admission.

12. The Council shall by By-law prescribe the conditions upon which persons who have passed the examinations of other corporate bodies having the same or
