

WITHOUT A DOLLAR

Although we were without a dollar of interest in arrears, or a dollar's worth of real estate on our hands at the close of the years 1894, 1895 and 1896, we had added largely to our investments in each year, and were regarded by financial men as occupying a very strong and very unique position.

THE TEMPERANCE AND GENERAL LIFE

ASSURANCE COMPANY

was probably the only Company having assets of upwards of $500,000 that could say as much.

IT IS THE TOTAL ABSTAINERS' COMPANY OF CANADA.

Don't insure without learning direct from the Company how it is prospering.
