

scope. Students have access without any additional fee to the lectures in Zoology in the Faculty of Arts, and to the Natural History Museum of the University and the Museum of the Natural History Society of Montreal.

16 Helminthology.—A course of six lectures on the Parasitic Diseases of Man and the Domestic Animals. (Prof. Osler). The life history and development of the Entozoa, together with the diseases caused by them, are fully considered. The lectures are illustrated by a series of beautiful diagrams, and by fresh and prepared specimens.

The following are extracts from the University Regulations with respect to the courses of Lectures :

1st. Each Professor shall deliver at least five Lectures during the week, except in the classes of Clinical Medicine and Clinical Surgery, in which three bedside demonstrations and one Clinical Lecture shall be given ; and in that of Medical Jurisprudence, if extended through six months, in which case three Lectures a week will suffice.

2nd. Every Lecture shall be of one hour's duration.

3rd. Every Professor shall occasionally examine his class upon the subjects treated of in his preceding Lectures, and every such examination shall be considered a Lecture.

4th. A roll of the names of the Students attending each class shall be called from time to time.

IV.
