Among the Ordinances which have been lately sanctioned by His Excellency the Governor General and the Special Council, it will be observed, that there is one for establishing Circuit Courts of Requests in the Districts of Quebec, Montreal and Three Rivers, and which will come into force on the first day of May next. By this no less necessary than salutary law, the Commissioner's Court for the Trial of Small Causes, the source, in many instances, of so much abuse and discontent, will be entirely abrogated in these three districts. These new Courts are authorized to try and determine, in a summary way, all civil suits of actions purely personal, wherein the amount claimed, or the thing in dispute shall not exceed the sum of ten pounds sterling. In each of the three districts, a Commissioner of the Court of Requests will be named; and upon being appointed a Justice of the Peace, such Commissioner will be Chairman of the Quarter Sessions in the District wherein he shall be Commissioner must be a Barrister of ten years standing, at the least, and shall not practice as an Advocate. If a Queen's Counsel, he may appear for the Crown only. When on Circuit, the Commissioners are authorized to perform certain judicial functions now performed by a Judge of the Court of King's Bench.—Montreal Gazette.

At a Levee held by the Queen, on the 20th February, we notice the following among the numerous presentations:—
Col. Cooper, on being appointed a Companion of the Bath, by Lord Hill.
Lieut. Col. Oldfield, upon his appointment as Commanding Engineer in the Canadas, by the Master-General of the Ordnance.
