C. M. B. A.

Grand Secretary's Office, London, July 29, 1891.

To the Members of the C.M.E. A. in Canada:

Brothers—I have received a letter from the Supreme Recorder in which he says, "At the recent meeting of the Supreme Trustees I called their attention to the matter of exchange paid by you for New York drafts, and the discount charged, the lengificairies in Canada on the same. A committee consisting of the Supreme President, Supreme Treasurer and myself was appointed, with full power to perfect a satisfactory plan so as to relieve Canada of this payment. You will, therefore, notify your branches officially as soon as possible that hereafter they can arrange to remit to you in such a manner as most convenient without purchasing. New York drafts. You can send your individual checks in the sam. of $1,000 and $2,000 properly certified instead of New York drafts. The same will be applied to the payment of Canadian claims to the extent of the amount received in payment of assessments. The checks will be returned to you by our Supreme Treasurer made payable to the order of the beneficiaries. In case of a surplus in favor of Canada, your check will be accepted at par by the Supreme Council, and in case we have to pay more than we receive, as in the case of assessment No. 9, drafts will be forwarded which will be accepted at par in Canada. In case of any change for discount or exchange, the same will be paid by the Supreme Council.

"I suggested this plan, and I think it will work entirely satisfactory. Canadian claims will be paid by your checks, and in case your death-rate will require more than what you remit, the Council (Supreme) will furnish drafts that will be accepted at par."

This arrangement will be the means of a considerable saving to the Grand Council of Canada. Branches that herotofore remitted by New York drafts will kindly discontinue this and hereafter remit by accepted cheque or draft payable at par at any of the following banks in London, Outario: Bank of Montreal, Bank of Toronto, Canadian Bank

Will the Discussion Close?

Will the Discussion Close?

There appears to be a desire on the part of some members that the discussion having reference to separate beneficiary should be brought to a close. Branch 84, of Montreal, desires to have all the papers which favor it, particularly the CATHOLIC RECORD, come under the ban of the Supreme body, while Branch 1, with much better taste and admirable temper, simply records its views that a further thrashing out of the subject would lead to mischief. As far as we are concerned, we have no desire to push on the agitation. Indeed, it appears to us, as we stated last week, that nothing further remains to be written. All our members—those who support as well as those who oppose the proposition in question—are, or ought to be, by this time, fully conversant with the various points advanced, and should have their minds fully made up as to which side they should take. Our purpose is to strengthen and consolidate, not to weaken, the Canadiam membership, and our brothers may rely upon it that we will have due supervision over all matter intended for the C. M. B. A. column. We cannot help remarking that irresponsible and loosely conducted journals are working much harm to the association by giving space to letters written solely with a view to gratify the acrimonious propensities of the writers. For our part we desire to leave the discussion just where it is for the present. We hold the same views still that we have held for some time past, and will, we think, always be impressed with the desirability of Canadiams paying their own losses. The present heavy death rate in Canada in no way alters our position. True, we contended that our light death-rate was one good reason for our attending to our own financial side of the business, but if this reason were monexistent, there are others of much weight which should tell in favor of a change. Canadiams sa each monthly assessment is sent which should tell in favor of a change. Canadians will not continue, we think, to pay tribute to a State that is always in a financial mess as each monthly assessment is sent forth; and we feel quite positive that were New York and Canada to change places the separate beneficiary clause would soon again work its way into the constitution. Resolutions of branches and all other matters of interest to our society will be cheerfully inserted; but we would ask our brothers, one and all, when they feel the letter-writing fever steal over them, to take thought and consider if what they intend to write is for the "good of the association."

Resolution of Branch 161.

At a regular meeting of Branch 161.

At a regular meeting of Branch No. 151, held Tnesday, June 1891, the following resolution was moved by First Vice-President Peter Hesch, seconded by Treasurer David Schwan and unanimously adopted:

The above resolution was carried unanimously, after tull discussion, at a meeting called by circular to each member of Branch 50.

Resolution of Branch 93.

Moved by Brother M. Ringross and seconded by Brother Wm. Egan, whereas the only means whereby the Canadian Grand Council of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association could obtain "separate beneficiary jurisdiction" have been removed by the Supreme Council, be it.

Resolved, that we, the members of Branch 93, of the C. M. B. A. of Renfrew, Ontario, Canada, while expressing our admiration of the able manner in which our Grand President has thus far urged our just demand upon the Supreme Council, hereby assure Brother MacCabe that he will have our hearty co-operation in severing the ties that bind us financially to the American branches of the C. M. B. A. so far as the payment of assessments is concerned.

It is with extreme pleasure we learn that Mr. J. O'Meara, barrister of Peterborough, has received and accepted a very lucrative offer to conduct the counsel work of the law firm of Mahon & O'Meara, Ottawa, Mr. Mahon has retired and the foremost position will hereafter be filled by Mr. O'Meara, who is favorably known as a well-read and careful lawyer. As a skilful examiner and pleader Mr. O'Meara has acquired a more than local reputation, and his name has been often mentioned by the Catholic press as one whom the Government ought not to pass over in its distribution of judicial honors. To every member of the C. M. B. A. his name is of course familiar as that of one of the few Canadians who by sheer force of ability has attained a foremost rank in the Supreme body. As legal adviser in Canada of the Supreme Council he has safegnarded the interests of the association in a number of cases entrusted to his care, and put a stop to harassing and expensive litigation. We cordially wish Mr. O'Meara a continuance and extension of that ample meed of success which he has heretofore enjoyed.

At the meeting of Branch 15, Toronto, held heir hall on 13th July, 1891, the following restions of condolence were unanimous

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God in His inscrutable wisdom to take from our midst our esteemed Brother, Ignatius Korman, who for several years, until the formation of Branch 15, had been a member of this branch Branch 15, desire to piace on record their sorrow at the loss of so valued a Brother, and extend to the family of deceased their heartfelt sympathy in this their sad bereavement, and pray that Almighty distrengthen the wild good of phanes to sear their painful cross with patience and resignation; and be it further.

Resolved, That the sympathy of this branch be extended to Branch 145 for the loss sustained in the death of Brother Korman, and that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to family of deceased Brother and Branch 15, and the same be published in the Review and the CATHOLIC RECORD.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Margaret Morkin, London.

Mrs. Margaret Morkin, London.

On the 14th instant, in this city, this venerable lady passed to her reward. She was the relict of the la'e Edward Morkin, of London West, who died about twenty-five years ago. Mrs. Morkin was one of our oldest residents, having come to this city in 1852, from King's County, Ireland. She leaves four sons-Edward, Thomas, John and Martin—and two daughters. During her long life she enjoyed the esteem, not alone of her immediate friends and relatives, but of all with whom she was acquainted. She was kind and charitable and a most exemplary Catholic. She died as she had lived in close communion with the Church of God, having had the happiness of receiving all its sacred rites before she breathed her last. The funeral, a most unusually large one, took place on Thursday from her late residence, to the cathedral, where a solemn Requiem Mass was offered up for the repose of her soul. We tender to the relatives our sincere condolence.

Address and Presentation to Miss

Minnie Murphy, Woodstock.

On Thursday evening, the 9th inst., a pleasant party of the Catholic congregation of Woodstock assembled at the priest's residence for the purpose of bidding adieu and presenting an address to Miss Minnie Murphy, who has been organist of St. Mary's Church for the last two years. Miss Murphy has accepted a position as organist of the church of Chatham, and her departure from Woodstock was made the occasion of the interesting event. The address on behalf of the congregation was read by Mr. Hugh Hickey. It gave expression to the universal regret that Miss Murphy's services as leader of the choir will be lost to the people of Woodstock, yet this regret was tempered with pleasure inasmuch, as it was for her a promotion to a more important charge. Her success in bringing the choir of Woodstock to a high state of efficiency was also dwelt upon, and her personal qualities of amiability and charity, which, besides leading her always to give her valuable help in all good undertakings, endeared her to her numerous friends in Woodstock.

A handsome present accompanied the address, the gift being a "Lady's Companion." Minnie Murphy, Woodstock.

Mr. Murphy, father of Miss Minnie Murphy, replied in brief but appropriate words. He thanked the pastor of the congregation, Rev. M. J. Brady, and the people for their kind sentiments, and their gift to his daughter, and expressed his pleasure at their assurance, which, he felt, was heartfelt, that they appreciated her services so highly. For his own part he felt happy that he had a daughter able and willing to play the organ and to train a choir to accompany the priest while offering up to Alaighty God the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and he felt this occasion the happiest moment of his life.

The presentation was followed by songs beautifully rendered by the Misses Murphy, Mr. Kendle, Mr. Farrel and others, after which those present retired to their homes well pleased with the events of the evening.

Religious Profession.

Special to the CATHOLIC RECORD. On the 16th inst., the cathedral of Peterborough was filled with a large concourse of people from the town and the surrounding country to witness the solemn and impressive ceremonics accompanying the reception of the religious habit of the community of the Sisters of St. Joseph. There was a large attendance of the clergy of the Peterborough diocese, among whom we noticed the Rev. Father Teefy, Principal of St. Michael's College, Toronto: Father Rudkins, rector of St. Peter's Cathedral: Fathers Murray, of Cobourg: Larkin, of Gratfor: Maguire, of Bracebridge: Nolan, of Lindsay; and Scollard, Dube and McColl of the cathedral. At 9 o'clock the beautiful and striking procession, peculiar to this religious rite, was seen gracefully moving from the adjoining convent to the cathedral. As the centre aisle filled with the advancing forms all eves turned in admiration on the scene. Nine small girls, typical of the angels God has given men as guardians, bearing in their lands the garbs worn by the Religious of the Order of St. Joseph eit the way for the nine young women who were going up to the altar of God to consecrate their lives to His service. These followed, their delicate forms wrapped in dresses of cream-colored satin, their long trains sweeping the pardment: on their brows lay crowns of orange blossoms and from these dropped, with their rich flowing trains sweeping the pardment: on their brows lay crowns of orange blossoms and from these dropped, with their rich flowing trains sweeping the pardment; on their brows lay crowns of orange blossoms and from these dropped, with their rich flowing trains the first of the Baids Tourist of the Baids To
