Now when straw and all kinds of bedding sell high for cash, farmers feel the want of an article that they can really afford to use as liberally as in former times. Hence, cows, oxen, horses and pigs are not unfrequently left without sufficient bedding for comfort. It is an acknowledged fact among stock feeders, that the more comfortable domesticated animals are made, the less the food eaten, and the better the condition of the animals Milch cows must also be well fed, if they are to produce well; for it is admitted by all thinking farmers, that it is vain to look for anything in the pail that has not gone in the cow's mouth.
