PULMONARY BALSAM.

THIS standard remedy for coughs and colds and other pulmonary and bronchial ailments, was first put before the public in 1836 and ever since then, a period of nearly half a century it has maintained and increased its reputation. In the meantime, probably thousands of the so-called cough remedies, under every conceivable name, have appeared, been pushed, and their day and most of them sink into the oblivion from which they never should have emerged to cheat invalids with false hopes of cure. Though no infallible virtues are claimed for this medicine, it is just to say that it possesses the following excellencies: 1. On many cases of cough it exerts an almost immediate and powerful influence. Decayed cases are very few which it quite fails to benefit. Long standing cases and those of aged persons are almost always greatly relieved. 2. Its action is speedy and pleasant; its taste is not disagreeable; and its dose is small. The last point is sure to be appreciated by the invalid. 3. It has received medical sanction, and has been frequently prescribed by some of our leading physicians. Add to the above that, when the smallness of its dose is considered, it is even cheaper than the common 25 cent Cough Drops and Syrups, of the Druggists. This remedy has held its way and attained its present reputation by its own merits, with little aid and advertising. It has an established sale, and those who know it will always use it when they need such aid. In the meantime, our climate remains what it is, the army of sufferers from throat and lung complaint will always be a large one, and constantly reinforced by new recruits. That all such may be acquainted with this reliable medicine is the aim of this advertisement. Price 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. CUTLER BROTHERS & Co., Proprietors, Boston. WHEDON'S COMMENTARY FOR THE BEREAN LESSONS OF 1876.

Best Commentary for Sunday School Workers, Ministers, and Bible Students. You need Vol. III of the Old Testament Series, written by Rev. Dr. Steele and Rev. M. S. Terry; Vol. IV of the same series, by Rev. M. S. Terry; and Vol. III of the New Testament, by Dr. Whedon. The Volumes of the Old Testament are larger, and contain over a third more matter than those on the New Testament. Old Testament Volumes, $2.50 per vol. New Testament Volumes, $1.75 per vol. NOTICES OF THE PRESS. Dr. Whedon has set an example of Commentaries that do not skip the hard passages.—Dr. E. O. Haven. Altogether these Volumes head the list of Biblical hand-books of interpretation Zion's Herald. In the research Mr. Terry is indefatigable laying down contribution all that recent explanation and scholarship have gone within his reach. He shuns no difficulty and shirks no labor.—New York Christian Advocate. Scholars and average readers will find this Commentary popular in form, yet solid in its critical value.—Christian at Work. There is an unusual fullness of detail on the little things which we all desire to know, but which are seldom found in similar works.—Sunday School Times. It shows the fruits of ripe scholarship, using the latest results of archeological and critical information.—Evangelical Lutheran Review. Vol. IV of the New Testament Series 1st Corinthians to 2nd Timothy, inclusive: by Dr. Whedon. Just published. Discount to Ministers and Teachers. METHODIST BOOK ROOM, HALIFAX.

THE NEW VOLUME OF THE "CANADIAN METHODIST MAGAZINE." The following are a few specimens of recent public and private opinions of our excellent connexional Monthly:—

"The Magazine is conducted with great spirit.—Montreal Witness. This Magazine has already achieved a very remarkable success.—Toronto Mail.

"The Canadian Methodist Magazine for January is a more than usually interesting and varied number.—Toronto Globe. The Canadian Methodist Magazine, under the judicious and scholarly editorship of the Rev. W. H. Withrow, M. A., has been a conspicuous success from the first. It takes no contracted view, and is catholic and genial in its opinions. While it is sufficiently solid, it is not heavy—that est modus discovered by so few Magazine publishers.—London Advertiser.

This is one of the very best and cheapest Magazines published on this continent, being only about one half the price of American Magazines of similar character.—St. Catherine's Times. We heartily recommend this Magazine to our readers as one that should be in every house. It is worth twice its cost to any person. Try it for a year or six months, and you will not regret doing so.—Brampton Conservator.

The Rev. A. Andrew writes: "Our people are exceedingly well pleased with the Magazine. If old 'Hard Times' did not hold a sceptre here, we could have a fine list for the New Year. I will do what I can for both it and the 'Banner'." An esteemed brother from Nova Scotia writes: "I am proud beyond expression of the Magazine." Another brother from the East writes: "Each number seems an improvement on its predecessor." The general opinion is that "for its size and excellence, this is the cheapest Magazine extant."

We confidently ask all its friends, ministerial and lay, to renew their subscriptions promptly, and to aid in increasing the circulation of our connexional monthly. A strong effort is especially necessary at the present crisis to prevent the painful monetary stringency from restricting its influence and usefulness. Marked improvements will be made during the coming year.
