JOYFUL NEW FOR THE AFFLICTED.

Nictaux Mountain, Annapolis Co.,

November 1877. Messrs. C. Gates, Son & Co.—Gentlemen

I had a child that was troubled very much with worms, and by taking on half bottle of your No. 1 Syrup was entirely cured of them. About in months afterward I was taken with the Pleurisy, and was about despatching & man for a doctor when it came to my mind to take your Syrup, which I did, and soon came round all right without taking any further medeine.

I have formerly been afflicted with sore throat and Quinsy in its severest forms, and could not get any relief or cure from any quarter or any medicine man until I obtained your Acadian Liniment, which always cures me at once. I have also known it to cure a number of friends in this neighborhood, and for my own part would not think of being without it in the house. My wife has also used your medicines for Heartburn, with the very best success. You may publish this if you wish to do

Is composed of Ingredients identical with tho which constitute Health, Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, whilst Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, re-establishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results :

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax or irregular habits, Bronchitis, Acute and Chronic Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, &c., St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough Nervousness, and is a most wonde.ful adjurct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

While they caused the formation of fat and ger. erated heat, they did not improve the blood. The tonic effect upon the nerves and muscles was, circumscribed, and, owing to their diluted state, ir velving large doses, they were also too expensive. The desiderata sought by Mr. Fellows, were:

A convenient, palatable remedy;

Unalterable by time; Harmloss, though used continuously, yet might be discontinued at any time without any ill effect Which would induce an appetite;

Strengthen digestion;

Promote assimilation; Create healthy blood;

Strengthen the nerves and muscles; Enable the subject to successfully combat diseas And sufficiently economical for all.

ABSTRACT EFFECTS.

Fellows' Hypophosphites, on being introduced into the stomach, unites with the food, and immediately enters the circulation; and, being perfectly miscible with the blood, speedily pervades every part of the system. Its effects are first declared by a pulse slightly increased in fullness and strength a general exaltation of the organic functions, and exhibitation of the intellectual powers. Its specific influence is on the brain and nervous substance, increasing the activity of the absorbents, and rtnewing the blood, thus causing the healthy muscular formation so necessary in restoring the functions of the previously weakened organs.

Being then, a tonic of the nervous and circulatory system, it follows that, when there is a demand for extrrordinary exartion, its use is invaluable, since it supplies the waste through the circulation, and sustains the general system.

FAt no period of life is watchful care over the functions of the brain more requisite tdan during the acquisition of knowledge by the youth: plodding, persevering study requires a store of vigorous nervous force, or the child may sink under the

HOME TOPICS.

SUGGESTIONS ABOUT CARPET-SWEEPING.

Sweeping is a good exercise if you can avoid raising a dust. But if you are in need of vigorous exercise of that kind, get a hoe and betake yourself to the potato-patch or corn-field. Sweep carpets gently. Even a rag carpet should be treated with consideration. A severe digging with a stiff broom wears the warp and scrapes out the lint of the rags quite needlessly. Not long ago I heard a woman say that a very stiff broom was needed for sweeping a Brussels carpet. I thought to myself "a stiff broom will never sweep my Brussels carpets," (good reason why), as I imagined the tearing out of the soft tufting of the carpet by the coarse, sharp broom splints. A carpet-sweeper is the best thing for this purpose. It does the work easily and well, and saves dust. A brush of hair and dust-pan are good to use for the nicest carpets, but their use is too laborious for recommendation to a busy housekeeper. If a common broom-corn broom must be used for Brussels, it should be fine, soft, light and clean. To sweep up threads, ravelings, and other fine litter, many persons wet the broom in clean tepid water, shaking out the water before sweeping with it, just keeping the broom moist enough to wipe up the fine dust and threads, rinsing in clear water and shaking it frequently as the work progresses. Brussels carpets are not suitable for rooms where sewing and baby culture are going forward. In providing carpets for any room, reason would dictate that they be such as may easily be kept clean; not so dark as to show every dust and thread, nor so light as to be very easily soiled—something which will either let the dust, sift through or retain it on the surface, rather than in the carpet itself, when to be used in rooms where dust is made.

CARE OF CARPETS.

To make sweeping an easy task, get carpets of a kind that are easily swept, then save them from unnecessary litter by care about scattering fine chips or crumbs of wood, cloth, paper or food. No Agents! No Commission! Eating should be done in rooms easily cleaned, with carpets of oil-cloth, or similar material, or with bare floors, or with a linen crumb-cloth spread upon the carpet underneath the table. Children should not be allowed to run about the house with pieces of food in their hands. If their food is not all taken at the table, the child should be obliged to sit still somewhere, catching its crumbs upon a napkin, bib or apron, instead of dropping them upon the floor. Children who learn "to save mamma trou ble," and so get at least a smile of gratitude from her for their thoughtfulness, are far happier than those who are not trained to care, but are allowed to make themselves a general nuisance among orderly people. If they wish to whittle, or cut paper or dolly things, in your best rooms, you need not necessarily refuse them. Spread a large cloth or newspaper down to catch the chips or clippings, and see that it is safely emptied so soon as the child's work is done. Grown up people are sometimes very annoying, because of their lack of this kind of early training. They pull flowers to pieces in your parlors, whittle on your smoothly-shaven lawn, scatter fruit peelings and cigar stumps about the yard, scribble on the covers of your magazines and margins of newspapers, and scratch matches on the walls of the house, or leave disagreeable marks of some kind in every possible place. THE CHOICE OF A BROOM. After the carpet and the care, next comes the broom—soft and limber, and not too large and heavy. I always send for light brooms now, having found how much more strength it uses up to wield a large and heavy broom. Besides, except for scrubbing, I want a broom to use gently. A short, quick stroke takes all the dust along before it, and does not send it flying all over the shelves, pictures, etc., so that much that you have stirred up and set flying about settles back over the carpet again. Keep the dust low, sweeping just hard enough to move it quickly along before the broom. If you have a very dusty room to sweep cover the furniture, or that which is upholstered, and the shelves and tables with books or small articles upon them, and afterwards shake the covers out of doors. Then, when you do the dusting, if the carefully swept carpet shows a fine coating of dust settled back upon it, you can if you chose wipe it over with a large clean cloth; shaking it out of doors.
