"TO THE KING'S

"MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY,

"Most Gracious Sovereign,

"WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Representatives of Prince Edward Island, in General Assembly convened, beg leave to approach your Majesty with sentiments of the most profound respect, humbly praying your Majesty's paternal attention to our Address.

"Aware that we are a distinct Colony with a Legislative Government, subordinate to your Majesty's great British Empire, and that we derive this blessing from your Majesty's Illustrious Father of blessed Memory, during the latter part of whose glorious Reign, and your Majesty's uparralleled Regency, this Island has increased in population and Commerce, which we in common with all other your Majesty's loyal Subjects the Inhabitants of this Colony acknowledge with heartfelt sincerity and gratitude.

"A difference unfortunately existing between two branches of the Legislature in this Colony, we with the most loyal attachment to your Majesty's person and Government, humbly beg to refer your Majesty to a certain Address of
