

FURTHER PARTICULARS.
We exceedingly regret being called upon to record one of the most disastrous fires that probably ever occurred in Brantford. The fire, as we learn from a gentleman who left Brantford yesterday morning, broke out between 10 and 11 o'clock on Thursday night in the cellar of Mr. Higginbotham's Drug Store, Colborne Street, from whence it spread to the adjoining buildings eastward, destroying all within reach, to the number of about twenty. On the east progress of the flames was only stayed by the brick store of Mr. Stevenson; and the stone store, next to where the fire commenced, occupied by Mr. Stewart, prevented their extending westward. The loss must doubtless be very great, and will be sorely felt by those whose property was uninsured. The sufferers, as far as we have been able to ascertain, are—Messrs. Higginbotham, Eaton, Walkinshaw, Burwell, Dunn, Messrs Weym's and Wilkes, besides several others, including the owners of two Barber shops, and a Waggon Maker's shop. Mr Higginbotham, we understand, is insured for £750 in the Gore Mutual, and Mr Eaton for £500 in an American Company. We are not aware of what property is covered by insurance, but learn that the Gore Mutual is a loser in the sum of £2080. How the fire originated appears to be a mystery. Mr Higginbotham had been ill for some time previous, and the clerk was left in charge of the store. Thursday, on account of a temperance festival, was regarded somewhat as a holiday, and little business was done in town. Hence it is presumed that as the young man in attendance at the store of Mr Higginbotham had not been in the cellar that day, nor any one else to his knowledge, the fire must have been caused by a barrel of phosphorus. How far this may be correct we cannot say; at all events such is the supposition.
Later.—The Offices and Storehouses of Mr Burwell and the Messrs Wilkes, were entirely consumed. The former had 5,000 bushels of Wheat in Store. The cut stone front of the building adjoining Mr Higginbotham's Drug Store, and owned by W. L. Turner, Esq. Woodstock, is very much injured.—Spectator of Saturday.
