ADVERTISE IN THE MAIL AND ADVOCATE

SWITZERLAND
London Times.
Probably it would take somebody as well up in statistics as this same correspondent seems to be to figure the number of the world's inhabitants that do not know, and the number that do not know, that 41 per cent of the Swiss are farmers and only 5-1-2 per cent. of them have anything to do with the harboring of strangers. Those who don't however, certainly form a group far greater than those who do, and this is not unnatural. The Switzerland we all hear and read about—yes, and the Switzerland some of us see—is composed almost wholly of "scenery," with the incidental but necessary hotels, restaurants, and boarding houses. It's Force of example can hardly be refuted when even the pesky little army worm has begun to get a-moved on him.

COWS ARE ALL RIGHT
as milk producers, but their meat is apt to be tough and tasteless.
ALL THE BEEF IN THIS MARKET
comes from young grain fed steers, especially bred for the purpose. The cheapest cuts of our meat are better than any cuts from any cow that ever lived and we can prove it.
