Kelly Advises all Women Take "Fruit-a-Tives"

BRANTFORD, ONT., AUG. 26th, 1913. A highly recommended "Fruit-a-Tive" because it did me an awful good and I cannot speak too much about them. About four years ago I commenced taking "Fruit-a-Tives" and I feel a world of good. We have a good many dollars' worth of money well spent because I feel that you claim for them. It is so pleasant, compared to other laxatives, that I found only one, as well as health, in taking them. They seemed to me to be very suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and that some other women are taking "Fruit-a-Tives" after my letter, and if they do, I am sure the results will be the same as my own case.

Mrs. W. N. KELLY

"Fruit-a-Tives" are sold by all at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial box, or sent postpaid on receipt of Fruit-a-Tives Limited, Ottawa.

FRATERNAL DAY

failure, have been put to shame for not having more confidence and loyalty in their city and in its people.

Morning Preparations.

Shortly after eight o'clock, in the morning, the crowds began to collect on the down town streets, awaiting the appearance of the regimental bands. Promptly at nine o'clock the bands appeared in front of the Old Home Week quarters in the Temple Building. First the Dragoons band with Lieutenant (Dr.) Pierce in charge, their instruments flashing in the morning sun and a few minutes later, the Dufferin Rifles band, under Bandmaster Frank Johnson. At the same time, every incoming radial car from Paris, Galt and Hamilton, brought in a crowd of visitors and at 9:30 the bands left for the depots to welcome the incoming fraternal men. At the depots the Reception Committee gave the glad hand to the visiting brethren and the welcome was indeed genuine. Those serving on the Reception Committee were: W. T. Downes, (Chairman) J. H. Miller, F. Neal, J. M. Creighton, D. Lyle W. B. Schuler, T. M. Raines, F. Waller, J. Patte, W. M. Hall, B. H. Benning, J. Kenny and G. G. Lambden.

As each delegate arrived he was conducted up to the Fraternal Committees desk in the headquarters room where he was registered by Secretary A. B. Lee, and just here let it be said, that Mr. Lee officiated in his accustomed faithful and energetic manner. No man was better fitted for the position than he, being as he is, Financial Sec. of Court Brantford, I. O. F., a former vice-president of Salisbury Lodge, S. O. E., Secretary of L. O. L. 742 and a member of the W. O. W. and the A. O. F.

The spirit of fraternity was in the air all morning. At each lodge headquarters the visiting brethren were received and again welcomed and made at home. Among the first of outside lodges to make their appearance was the company No. 2 of Camp

Pine Grove, W. O. W. of London, who made a splendid appearance in their neat blue uniforms, carrying silver axes, the emblem of their order. Conducted down Market street by the Brant Dragoons band, they were greeted with acclamations of applause all along the line. A little later the sound of the pipes was heard, when the pipers arrived from Galt and made their way along the street to the Sons of Scotland headquarters in the Temple Building.

Here they were eight royally welcomed by Chief J. B. Wilson and the Veteran Scotsman Angus McCauley, than whom no other man worked harder to make the day a success. The Galt pipers were soon joined by the local lodge pipers under Pipe-Maj. Galbraith and while men of other nationalities may have their opinion of the pipers, they surely stirred the heart of every Scotsman. One was reminded of the deeds of heroism that have been enacted to the strains of the pipes. Where is the German troop that can stand against the rush of the Kilites?

At 11:20 the De Chombery Commandery of Royal Scarlet Knights from Hamilton, a chapter degree in the Orange Order, arrived. In their black uniforms with silver trimmings, wearing scarlet plumes in their helmets, they made a stirring appearance.

Every car brought in a new quota of visitors and by 12 o'clock noon the streets were crowded, and all was in readiness for the parade. For weeks past the parade committee had been working on the arrangement for this, the greatest society parade ever held in Brantford. Those who served on the parade committee of Fraternal day were G. B. Wright (chairman), J. B. Wilson, T. Y. Thomson, T. Cronk, R. W. Edwards, F. C. Brown, P. E. Hicks, D. Smith, G. W. Dorland, H. Davies, F. C. Brown, F. Bone, J. Walley and H. Crumplin.

Assembling of Societies

At 12 o'clock, as per schedule, each society formed up at its station from which to march to join the main parade. The A. O. F. on Queen street facing Darling, the S. O. E. on Wellington, facing Queen, the L. O. L. and L. T. B. on King street, facing Wellington, the K. O. T. M. on Bridge street facing Darling, the C. O. O. F. on William street, facing West, the S. O. S. on Brant Avenue west of West St. facing West street, the C. M. B. A. and Catholic Order of Foresters on Bridge street facing Dalhousie and the W. O. W. on King street facing Dalhousie. Each society was in charge of its own marshal, who in turn took his orders from the chief marshal, C. B. Wright.

While waiting for the parade to form up the W. O. W. company from London, and the Royal Scarlet Commandery from Hamilton gave exhibitions of their drills that were watched by a large number of interested spectators. The crowds began to line up on the sidewalks for the parade. Excitement ran high. Each marshal carefully inspected his division to see that everything was in readiness. The parade was scheduled to move at one o'clock, but waiting for the arrival of fraternal men from outside points delayed the parade until nearly two o'clock.

The Parade Starts

Finally a stroke of the fire bell started the sections towards Dalhousie street, where all joined. The route of the parade was along Dalhousie to Market street, Market to Chatham, Chatham to George, George to Colborne, and Colborne across Lorne bridge to Agricultural park.

For over an hour before the parade passed the walks along the route of march were crowded with people. Never before in the history of Brantford has such a crowd of spectators watched a passing parade. Colborne street especially was lined on both sides with a solid mass of both young and old, the full width of the sidewalks. Every upstairs store window had three or four interested spectators gazing down. Pennant sellers yelled their wares up and down the street. Jubilee Terrace was crowded to its utmost capacity, and those who secured a place there certainly had a fine vantage point for viewing the parade. It seemed as if every man, woman and child who could walk had come down town to see the parade. It was rather a long wait, but the time was well spent by the meeting of old boys and girls.

The sun was hot, the pavement gave out a heat that seemed to burn right through one's shoe leather. Policemen walked up and down, keeping the crowd back. The nervous young man eyed the rough looking customer next to him, taking him for a pick-pocket. He felt in the pocket of his hard earned cash and then discovered that his rough looking friend had indulged in too many "welcome home" glasses, and was plainly drunk. At last the strains of the "Double Eagle" march played by the Dufferin Rifles band, was heard as the parade turned from George street onto Colborne street, and the parade was coming.

The Parade

First came the auto with Mayor Spence, J. F. Van-Lane, chairman of the fraternal committee, to whose unceasing energy a great deal of the success of the parade is due, and C. B. Wright, chief marshal.

The 8th band led the way with Chief Hamilton, senior and junior, from Tuscarora, in front, reminding one in their full Indian garb of the days when Brant county was really the place of wigwags.

The Boy Scouts with Scout Commissioner Macfarlane mounted, followed. The lads looked smart and clean cut in their uniforms. And then a sad touch, as four little motherless children in the Children's Aid Society, dressed in white, followed.

When it came to judging the marshals the judges had quite a task as they certainly had a splendid group to choose from. The marshal judges were Chief Lewis, C. H. Hartman and Aid. Quinlan, and they awarded the first prize to Mr. F. Mason of the K. O. T. M.; the second to Mr. John Phillips, marshal of the Catholic Order of Foresters; and the third to Mr. William Beach of the Ancient Order of Foresters; and the fourth to Mr. John Phillips, marshal of the Catholic Order of Foresters.

Perhaps it would have been in the best interests of the Old Home Week if the programme of sports at the ball park had been conducted in a more methodical and precise manner than was the case yesterday. At the beginning there was lacking, as it were the master hand of control all the time which elapsed between the events was a little monotonous. In spite of this the afternoon of sports was a success and it was so because the people turned out in large numbers to see the fun, and they got lots of it. When it did start with comic performances and a ball game there was great hilarity and it was evident that the watchers were out for a good time.

Arriving with the monster parade, the gaily colored crowd soon filled the best seats and gathered around the enclosure. First they were treated to a look at all the members of the various lodges, and while some of the officers were in their state uniforms and wore ordinary clothes of men, many were attired in common civilian attire and did not arouse any enthusiasm. They however showed the strength of the lodges. The floats attracted much interest as they passed for inspection. The Sons of England were applauded for the "Rule Britannia," while the Y. M. C. A., the Catholic Fraternal societies and K. O. T. M. were well commented upon by the onlookers.

In the meantime several of the results and awards of the regatta were announced by Aid. Walter Dragg from a raised platform, close to the centre stand. With a big megaphone Walter sounded fine and did his appearing body to the Sons of Scotland and the announcement was received with great applause. The $50 prize for the largest and best dressed visiting band went to the Indian band of the 37th regiment.

The $50 cash prize for the best float presented by the High Court of the Canadian Order of Foresters, through Mr. A. P. VanSameren, was awarded by the judges, Mayor Spence, Messrs. Fred Frank and A. K. Bunnell to the Sons of England, and the second prize $25 to the Catholic Fraternal societies.

A., the Catholic Fraternal societies and K. O. T. M. were well commented upon by the onlookers.

In the meantime several of the results and awards of the regatta were announced by Aid. Walter Dragg from a raised platform, close to the centre stand. With a big megaphone Walter sounded fine and did his work well. The boys race was the first staged and it resulted in a fairly easy thing, for J. Stewart, who paced the way and won by three yards in the 50 yard run. His time was 8 2-5 seconds. Peter Rowe and L. Goodson came in second and third.

A fine feature of the afternoon was the performance of several acrobatic novelties and national dances by six little girls trained in London by Miss Henderson. The little dancers were Jean Walker, Gladys Comber of London and Mildred Tomley, Eileen Bridle and Josephine O'Sullivan, and they with their lightsome feet delighted the large crowd. Indeed they were accorded several encores.

Miss Reno revealed herself to be a clever tightrope walker while Moosie Walsh as her partner for fun proved the limit and gave everyone a period of merriment.

The stunts of Walsh and King in a chasing scene of folding doors and trick catches, were amusing in no small degree and got a full measure of applause.

The Scouts were, as usual on the scene and they gave a very smart exhibition of field craft and drills.

The different lodges too gave excellent displays of their fancy drill work, the Royal Knights being especially noticeable.

The five mile race resulted in a victory for Jamieson an Indian of the L. O. L., Ohsweken. His time for the distance, said to be five miles was 31.18. Peters, another Indian came in second in the time of 34.30, and John Lightfoot of London was third in the time of 36.22.

A most funny race was the Tango consisted of dressing from boxes at the end of 50 yards, and returning properly attired. Alf. Dowling came in first, T. F. Edwards second and Lorne Stenmore, 3rd.

The Drill Corps competition was won by the Royal Scarlet Chapter, De Schomberg Company, No. 1 of Hamilton who came through with 67 points against 58 by the Pine Grove Camp, No. 2, of the Woodmen of the World, London. Both fraternities were splendidly dressed.

The Indians proved the strongest Tag-of-war men and they succeeded in finally ousting Hamilton in the contests yesterday by pulling their opponents over the centre, with a good strong heavy heave.

The battles preceding between the Scots and Sons of England resulted in wins for the Scots who were routed by the Hamilton boys. Ohsweken, L. O. L. No. 307, under Captain C. Martin, were the winners with the Catholic Order of Foresters captained by Tom Convery, as runners up.

The expectation was better than the realization of the Greasy Pig Contest, which Joe Isenbaugh secured pretty fast and before the pig had time to get going. The pig did not run more than fifty yards.

Pete Cancelli was buried beneath a pile of players who did not agree with one of his verdicts in the comic ball game. LaCroix did well as a pitcher, while Kube as the cop, was conspicuous by his absence.

The oldest member proved to be John Oliver, whose record was 52 years a member of the L. O. L., Paris. The oldest lady was Mr. J. Kenny of the L. T. B. No. 15 of Brantford. She has over twenty years to her credit.

Mrs. H. Hampden experienced hard luck when she was disqualified as the lady coming the longest distance. She hailed from Prince Rupert, B. C., and she had to give way to the claims of Mrs. McInnis of Brantford, who came from Madona, Manitoba.

Mrs. Spence, the Mayor's wife graciously presented the prizes at the conclusion of the programme and she was thanked by the committee for her kindness.

A great amount of praise is due to the Sports Committee for the earnest endeavor to provide a bright and sparkling programme behind the dyke. They are as follows: F. Waller, chairman, R. W. Brooks, J. Bond, B. H. Benning, J. W. White, F. J. Waterson, G. H. Hand, S. G. Macklin, H. Green, J. W. Wakeley, W. J. Sweetman, J. Kerr, J. Gillen, L. White, Misener, A. McKinnon T. M. Raines, J. Kenny, F. Neal, F. Askew C. S. Brown J. Thomson.

The judges had a ticklish job which they well accomplished. They were as follows: Chief Sleming, Chief Lewis J. B. Cornelius and G. H. Roper.

Recovers Diamond Ring.

That the Courier Lost "Ad" column shows results, was clearly demonstrated when Billy Devine of St. Thomas, well known in Brantford as a bicycle rider and fast racer, and who is with the Washburn Shows, lost a $300.00 diamond ring Saturday night, while helping to get his show in shape. It was advertised in the Courier once. Mr. Sharp of this city, who found the ring returned it to Mr. Devine, who gave him a suitable reward.
