DECISIVE LIBERAL VICTORY

Again the people of the province have by a not very uncertain sound voted confidence in the Murray administration. The Liberal government has been returned by a majority such as it never had before, and it has had but little opposition of late. Every county elected one or more government supporters and only in Cumberland and Pictou were Conservatives chosen by the people with a Liberal colleague.

The result while being disappointing to the Conservatives was not unexpected. The resources of two governments and the prosperity of the province helped to roll up the Liberal successes. The Conservatives can afford to bide their time for another term for they suffer no more by the extravagance of the government than their opponents, they lack only in political favors and government pay.

The contest in Kings was conducted with the best of party feeling and good will among opponents. Messrs Dodge and Wickwire are to be congratulated upon their handsome victory. The Conservatives are well satisfied with their two candidates though defeated and when another elect on arises will be ready again to enter the contest.

A bitter newspaper war is now raging all over the United States, over President McKinley's death. Papers like the Sun, the Tribune, the Press, all of them Republican, have not hesitated to say that Crozier and Emma Goldman are the outcome of the teachings of the Democratic press and the yellow journalism that prevails in the States. Mr. Hearst of the New York Journal is named in paper after paper, as being worse than the assassin.

According to the figures which have partially been estimated, total arrivals of immigrants to Canada for year ending June 30 last, number 21,162, of which twelve thousand were from the British Isles. Those from the United States numbered between sixteen and eighteen thousand. The total immigration, when all the figures are in, is expected to be about fifty thousand.

Mr. Roy's new steamer the Cornwall is expected soon at this port with a load of coal. As she will ply on Minas Basin she should receive the Beaver's subsidy. Some $2500 application will be made to the Dominion government for a light house and some $20,000 will be needed to dredge the river. In days gone by Kentville was quite a seaport.

OBITUARY

John Crowe

Hyde Park, Mass., has been called upon to mourn the loss of one of her old and respected residents. We refer to the death of Mr. John Crowe which occurred at that place on Wednesday, September 18th, at the age of 89 years from a paralytic shock.

The deceased was a native of Kentville and left here about thirty five years ago for the States where he resided until death claimed him. He leaves two daughters and four sons to mourn their loss. Mrs. Weaver of Medford, Kings, is a daughter and the late Wilson Crowe, Kentville, was a brother.

The Digby Courier of the 27th ult says, Mr. E. Hart Nichols, sr., placed a number of ripe strawberries on our table this week. There were also blossoms and green berries among the collection. Mr. Nichols informs us that he had ripe berries last November which were raised in the same garden.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gesner and daughter of New York have been spending several weeks in town with Mrs. J. F. Hanson. Mr. Gesner is a native of this county and is noted for his scientific attainments in metallurgy. We will speak of some of his discoveries and researches in next issue.

PORT WILLIAMS

Oct. 2nd.—On Wednesday evening of last week a very pretty wedding was solemnized here in the Baptist church by Rev. D. E. Hatt, pastor. The interested parties were Mr. St. Clair Spidel of Lunenburg, and Miss Ethel Forsyth of Greenfield. The groom who looked proud and happy was supported by Bordman Lantz while Miss Harvey of Greenfield attended the bride who looked very stylish dressed in steel colored cloth with satin trimmings, and picture hat to match. The church was prettily decorated with potted plants, cut flowers and a handsome arch of autumn leaves and wax berries, under which the bridal party stood. Miss Alice Welton officiated at the organ. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. Lorne Pudey. On Sat. a. m. they left via Yarmouth for their future home in Mass., followed by best wishes of many friends.

The small pox scare has descended on us. Though there are no cases within 5 miles yet people are keeping their children from school and talking of closing meetings, etc. We hope to not have any cases but fright has been known to kill.

On Monday evening Councilor Campbell and wife entertained a large number of friends on the anniversary of their wedding. It was a capital epoch.

Fire Insurance

The Secretary of Kentville Board of Trade has received the following letter, which has been handed us for publication:—

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 14, 1901.

Dear Sir,—The Joint Committee of the City Council and Board of Trade appointed to protest against the threatened increase of Fire Insurance rates throughout the Province, have been informed that the increased rates will go into effect on 1st October next.

The Committee would suggest that all parties who are insured with the Companies who have combined to raise the rates, should at once notify the Agents of these Companies that they will hereafter give the preference to those Companies who have refused to increase the rates. The names of non tariff Companies will be announced after the new tariff goes into effect.

In the event of the non-tariff Companies not being able to take all the insurance offered, steps will at once be taken to establish a strong Provincial Company.

Please give the widest publicity to the contents of this circular.

I have the honor to be, sir, Your obedient servant, Charles M. Creed, Sec'y of Joint Committee.

Sec'y Board of Trade, Windsor, N.S.
