HIS STYLE OF ADVERTISING.

Unexpected Development of Ovid

Chapman When Business Got Dull.
"The professional writer of advertisements," remarked a man in the advertising business, "knows more about his trade than any one else does. But occasionally some crank outsider, from whom it is least to be expected, comes out with a stray idea that is worthy of attention."

"I remember the case of an old man named Ovid Chapman, who kept a general store in a sleepy little Massachusetts village. He was not an educated man, but he was clever, as is proved by the fact that he could read his own handwriting. One day he wandered into the office of the village weekly and asked to see the business manager."

"'Hey, you,' he said by way of greeting to that worthy, 'I want two inches of space for two months. Things has been droppin' off consid'rably in my line lately, an' I'm goin' to try advertisin' for a spell.'"

"'Ahem!' coughed the business manager. 'Now, just what is your line of business, Mr.—er—Chapman?'"

"'Waal, I best keep hardware, candy, shoes, toothbrushes, haccy, shirts an' all such things. But you needn't bother about that. I've got my ad. all writ up.' And he took from his pocket a slip of paper upon which was scrawled the following: 'We don't keep anything. We sell everything! O. Chapman, Main street.'"

"Some days later, when passing his store, I was surprised to see this placard hanging above the boots and shoes in his window: 'We are trying to sell our shoes—not our customers. New shoes sold. Old shoes resoled.'"

"'Yas,' he said, coming to the door with a satisfied chuckle, 'I believe in advertisin'. But it's like baked beans—it's got to be well done to be any good.'"

Patti When She Sang.

The following lines were written (in French) by Adelina Patti in response to a request that she would describe briefly her feelings while singing:

"I never have been able to take proper account of my feelings during those few moments. I know that on the day of the performance I am nervous and agitated, and as the time draws nearer and nearer I suffer more and more from stage fright. When the moment arrives for me to leave my room and go before the footlights, my whole being is dominated by a sensation of abject terror. My feelings while I am actually singing defy analysis; they differ according to the role, the number of artists around me, etc.—they are so varied that I simply cannot describe them. I should be obliged to enter into all the many details which, petty as they may be, at times impress us very strongly."

A Geometric Mystery.

"Charles, dear," said young Mrs. Torkins, "do you remember when I did my best to explain to you what was meant by the phrase 'cut bias'?"

"Yes."

"Well, I wish you would reciprocate. I read all about the prizefight, so that I could converse intelligently with you. And I would like to know how they explain the fact that the were 23 rounds, all perfectly square."

Merely a Query.

Johnny—Pa?
Father—Well?
Johnny—Do you laugh in your sleeve 'cause that's where your funny bone is?—Brooklyn Life.

"The Least Hair Casts a Shadow."

A single drop of poison blood will, unless checked in time, make the whole impure. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the great leader in blood purifiers.

It casts no shadow, but brings sunshine and health into every household.
Running Sore—"My mother was troubled with rheumatism in her knee for a number of years, and it broke out into a running sore. She took three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and is now well. Hood's Olive Ointment helped to heal the eruption." Mrs. JOHN FARR, Cloverlawn, Ancaster, Ont.

Rheumatism—"I was badly afflicted with sciatic rheumatism. Consulted doctors without relief. Was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and five bottles gave me relief and enabled me to go to work." WILLIAM R. ROACH, Margaretville, N. B.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure liver ills; the non-drugging and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

A Falling Out.
"And why did you leave your last place?"
"Cook an me had a fallin out, mem."
"I don't see why you should leave for a little thing like that."
"But we fell out o' th' third story window, mem."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

'Tis Nip and Tuck.
The man of an inventive mind
His tireless brain will rack
A covering for ships to find
Impervious to attack,
And when success seems just in view
Some other genius great
Produces a projectile new
To smash his armor plating.
—Washington Star.

Preserving His Dignity.
Freshie—Notice how the professor has taken to quoting slang once in awhile. I don't think that dignified.
Senior—If your powers of observation were a little better cultivated, you would also have noticed that he always quotes it wrong.—Indianapolis Press.

Point of View.
The farm boy gazed on the gray cashier
And thought, as entranced he lingered near:
"Land! Would that I that job could hold—
To stand all day and just count gold."
The gray cashier from his dull employ
Viewed the tan brown cheeks of the awkward boy
And mused, "It would be my dearest wish
Could I be that boy and go off to fish."
—Chicago Record.

A Dead Un Sure.
Billings—You are the last man to play the races. What do you know about horseflesh, anyway?
Stillson—I ought to know a good deal about it. I was in the army and lived on salt horse for months at a time.—Boston Transcript.

The Baby.
All day he works like everything;
He'll tug and roll and creep;
And when he's dead worn out folks sing
Three hours to make him sleep.

Coated

Look at your tongue. Is it coated?
Then you have a bad taste in your mouth every morning. Your appetite is poor, and food distresses you. You have frequent headaches and are often dizzy. Your stomach is weak and your bowels are always constipated.
There's an old and reliable cure:

Don't take a cathartic dose and then stop. Better take a laxative dose each night, just enough to cause one good free movement the day following. You feel better the very next day. Your appetite returns, your dyspepsia is cured, your headaches pass away, your tongue clears up, your liver acts well, and your bowels no longer give you trouble.

Price, 25 cents. All druggists.

"I have taken Ayer's Pills for 35 years, and I consider them the best made. One pill does me more good than half a box of any other kind I have ever tried."
Mrs. N. E. TALBOT,
March 30, 1880. Arrington, Kans.

Cook's Cotton Root Compound

Is successfully used monthly by over 10,000 ladies. Safe, effective. Ladies ask your druggist for Cook's Cotton Root Compound. Take no other, as all mixtures, pills and imitations are dangerous. Price, No. 1, $1 per box; No. 2, 10 degrees stronger, $2 per box. No. 1 or 2, mailed on receipt of price and two recent stamps. The Cook Company Windsor, Ont. SP-100. 1 and 2 sold and recommended by all responsible Druggists in Canada.

No. 1 and No. 2 is sold in (Athens) by J. P. Lamb & Son, Druggists.
