MANSLAUGHTER
Toronto, Aug. 23.—Proceedings have been taken criminally against Andrew Lewis, of 18 North Markham street, father of Roy Lewis, a young lad who died of diphtheria while under the treatment of a "Christian Science demonstrator" named Richard Perry. The charge is manslaughter, and it is based on the fact that Lewis neglected to call in a competent medical man, summoning, instead, Perry, who, for an expected consideration, pretended to administer a "silent treatment," which consisted in shutting the eyes and sitting still. The information has been sworn to and a warrant issued, and Lewis will be arrested on sight.

SUNDAY SERVICES

International Bible Lesson for Tomorrow—Abraham and Isaac—Gen. 22, 1-14.

Golden Text—Heb. 11, 17, "By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac."

We have here a record of faith and obedience for heaven and earth, for all time. Isaac has learned like his father to yield obedience to God and parental rule, as all should do. Only father and son transact this sacrifice; their faith accounted God as ready to restore Isaac from death; another miracle would restore him to fulfill God's promises and purposes in him.

See Heb. 11, 19. Thus faith triumphs over human feelings; divine love shed abroad in the heart controls natural affection and our lives. The whole incident was a prophetic tableau of the sacrifice of the Son of God, who, in our Lord Jesus Christ, was obedient to the death of the cross for man's sin, God's Son, because the seed in whom all nations shall be blessed.

A man talks about owning his business. But, as a matter of fact, his business owns him. His whole life is regulated by the demands of the business. The time at which he rises, his breakfast hour, the time given to meals, are all determined by business obligations. He rushes through lunch because he "can't spare the time from business" to eat leisurely. He won't take a rest because he is needed at the store or office. He is in fact an absolute slave to business. The results which follow this slavery are to be seen on every hand. Men dyspeptic, irritable, nervous, with drawn faces, and hollow eyes, sit at the desk or stand behind the counter until they collapse in a fit of sickness, or are taken away by heart failure. Those who cannot escape the exactions of business will find a friend in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, increases the action of the blood-making glands, increases the vitality and physical vigor. It makes men strong and prevents those business breakdowns which so often terminate fatally.
