THE ACADIAN. WOLFVILLE, N. S., MAR. 22, 1889

Local and Provincial.

PERSONAL.—Prof. Tufts, who has been taking a course at Harvard, returned home last week.

EXCHANGE.—Rev Mr Ross expects to exchange pulpits on Sunday next with Rev Mr Fraser, of Middleton.

RECOVERING.—We are glad to see that Dr Sawyer is so far recovered as to be able to attend his classes in College. He wears his arm in a sling.

THE WEATHER.—The weather during the past week has been real "Marchy" and unpleasant—not at all like the pleasant days which preceded it.

I. O. G. T.—Enterprise Lodge, No. 54, was re-organized at Melvern Square, Annapolis Co., by P. G. C. T. Shipley Spurr, on the evening of Saturday last. Mr Spurr expects to organize a Juvenile Temple in the same locality.

THOSE CHILDRN.—We regret to have to call attention again to those dangerous children. Surely it is time that something was done to prevent an accident. A cheap railing would cost but a trifle, and should be erected at once.

APPLES.—The trains of the W. & A. R. have been busy this week carrying apples to Halifax to be shipped to England. Several special trains were out the first of the week. The regular freight on Saturday took thirteen carloads.

LADY-DAY.—Next Sunday afternoon being the eve of the Festival of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, commonly called Lady-Day, a sermon will be preached at St John's church, Wolfville, on "The Double Blessedness belonging to the Most Holy Virgin Mother of the Redeemer." Divine service at three, p. m.

BAPTISM.—Rev Messrs Higgins and Wallace administered baptism to sixteen candidates at the close of the service in the Baptist church, on Sunday evening last. The church was crowded—every seat being filled. Mr Wallace preached his last sermon for the present in this place on that occasion and left on Monday for a new field of work.

OBITUARY.—We regret to be called upon this week to record the death of Mr Thomas Wallace, of this place, which occurred on Saturday last after an illness of some months. Mr Wallace was a good citizen, an energetic temperance worker and a consistent member of the Baptist church; and was universally respected. We tender our sympathy to the sorrowing family.

FIRST ARRIVAL.—Although we can hardly say that navigation has been closed this winter, perhaps, properly, the first arrival from sea this season was the sloop, "Nellie Blanche," Lyons, which arrived on Saturday last from Boston, with a general cargo. We do not remember of a vessel ever arriving in Wolfville so early in the season as this. Captain Lyons reports no loss and nothing to impede navigation.

SOLID SUBSCRIBERS.—Following is the list of those who have paid in and made life joyful for us since last issue: Jas. Eldridge, Falmouth, $2 00; J. D. Chambers, Wolfville, $1 00; Chas. S. Fitch, Wolfville, $1 00; Mrs William Farnham, Canard, $4 00; Irad Benjamin, Gasperau, $1 00; John Donaldson, Port Williams, $1 00; Rev. C. R. B. Dodge, Bridgewater, $1 00; Mrs Alexander Nelson, Bridgewater, $1 00; Miss Fowler, Kentville, $1 00. Total, $13 00.

NEW ENGLAND SUPPER.—The ladies of the Lower Horton Methodist church held a "New England supper" in the basement of their church on Wednesday evening, 13th inst., which was a most successful affair. The attendance was good and the entire arrangements of a very complete nature. The very respectable sum of $50 was realized, which is intended to go toward paying off the debt on the home-shed recently erected near the church. The greatest credit is due to those who organized and conducted the affair.

ACADIA'S GRADUATES.—We are pleased to see Foster P. Eaton, M. D., in Wolfville for a few days. Dr Eaton graduated at Acadia in 1866, and has since taken his M. D. at the University of the City of New York, where his standing was high, his place being fifteenth out of a class of 212. We have not learned where Dr Eaton intends to begin the practice of his profession. Dr K. deBor, M. A., at present a student at Newton Theological Seminary, is among his friends here for a few days. He looks well and happy.

New Departure!

We have this week put in stock a complete line of Miss Buttrick's Sad Death.

BERLIN, March 16th.—The body of a young and beautiful girl, taken from the river Spruce to-day, and at first unrecognized, has been identified as that of Helen Buttrick, an American student of music at the Berlin academy. She had been missing for several days. She went away while in a gloomy state of mind caused by remarks of the teachers on her low standing in her classes, and left a note saying she would not return. The search for her had been unavailing up to today. It is believed she committed suicide. The dead girl came from Milford, N. H. She was usually in good spirits, and was a favorite companion among the other pupils. Her body has been taken to the morgue, and the news of her death called to her friends in America.

The news of Miss Buttrick's death will be heard with great regret by many in this community, where she was well known and highly esteemed. For three years Miss Buttrick was teacher of instrumental music in Acadia Seminary, in which position she won the admiration and affection of her pupils and fellow teachers.

The fact of her death is known here from private cablegram; but how far the despatches published are correct in regard to the circumstances we are as yet unable to say. On one point there is evidently some misrepresentation. So far from her standing being low it was very high. She gained admission to the Berlin conservatory by competition, being one of nine admitted out of upwards of sixty candidates from Germany, England, the United States and other countries.

Her studies have been successful, she having been promoted in the school so that she was under the best professor. Quite recently she had sung before the Emperor and Empress. But it appears from recent advices that her health had been giving way under the strain of her work so that she was on the verge of complete prostration. The facts will no doubt show that her success and her consuming ambition and not any failure, caused her decease. Of the highest moral character and fine personal qualities she will be deeply mourned by many friends.

DEAR ACADIAN.—The Saturday evening paper gives an account of the death of Miss Helen Buttrick, formerly teacher at Acadia Seminary. The sad story as briefly told in a despatch from Berlin is in substance thus: She failed to do as well in some study as she had hoped; her discouragement was increased by unduly severe remarks on the part of a teacher; on Wednesday she went out, stating that she intended to visit friends; as she did not return to her room, alarm was felt and the police notified; Friday (or Saturday) her body was found in the river Spruce. The despatch speaks in high terms of her popularity, ability and excellence. Yours truly,

O. C. S. WALLACE. LASTICE, Mass., March 18, '89.

THANKS.—Dr F. W. Borden, M. D., and Rev. J. B. Hemmison will please accept thanks for Parliamentary papers. Our space will not allow of our reviewing them this week.

MR MOTTON'S LECTURE.—On Friday evening last a large audience assembled in College Hall to hear Robt. Motton, Esq., of Halifax, delivered a lecture on "Lessons in Life." The learned gentleman evinced a deep knowledge of life and has evidently been a close observer of human nature. The analysis of his subject, however, was hardly as critical, there being a rather conspicuous absence of continuity and purpose in the arrangement. The points made were illustrated by anecdotes, in the telling of which, the lecturer certainly excels. Mr Motton will doubtless be warmly welcomed in Wolfville, if on any future occasion he may find it convenient to favor us with another lecture.

DECEASED.—Late last Saturday night or early Sunday morning Mr Walter Brown's hardware store was entered through the front window and a number of revolvers, pocket-knives and other articles stolen. Word was received on Monday morning that a man had been arrested in Windsor having the stolen articles upon his person. Constable E. B. Forsyth, armed with a warrant, proceeded to Windsor by the evening train, and returned next morning with the prisoner, John O'Brien, who was taken before Stipendiary Davidson, and after hearing the evidence of Mr Brown and the constable admitted that the goods found upon him was the property of Mr Brown. He was committed to the county jail at Kentville, where he now is awaiting his trial at the next session of the supreme court.

In Memoriam.

"We all do fade as a leaf." "Sorrow for which I feel the only sorrow from which we refuse to be divorced." The strongest, most useful and the most loved are often the first to cross "the river." It is with deep sorrow and sympathy with the bereaved family that we record the sudden death of our faithful friend, Mr Robert Lydiard, station agent in Berwick, of the W. & A. R. W. Co., at the age of thirty-seven. Just one week before his demise, in a religious meeting, happy in a new found hope, we were rejoiced to see him confessing Christ. Then apparently well he retired from the sanctuary of praise and prayer to his death chamber, where, just one week later, on the evening of the 18th inst., triumphantly and peacefully and most resignedly he passed away. The whole community, accustomed to his business at our station, sorrow over his untimely departure as a public calamity, and not only will be missed as a genial and most obliging official, but also as a kind and true-hearted neighbor. He leaves a sorrowing wife and one son. The funeral solemnities took place on the 20th inst., and were conducted by the Rev Mr Tuttle.

A numerous signed petition has been laid before the R. R. department, praying for the appointment of Mr George Lydiard, of Centerville, as Berwick station agent, to succeed his late brother. Some years since Mr Lydiard was in this office, and if he receives the appointment it will give general satisfaction.

PREMATURE.—We are sorry to learn from private sources that the news of the improvement of Mr C. W. Knowles' health, as published, is not strictly correct. A friend informed us on Friday evening that he is no better, and that the hemorrhage from the lungs continues.—Hants Journal.

VAMPIRE.—G. W. Barnaby, late Collector of Customs, has disposed of his property in this County and left for parts unknown. Developments in connection with the late visit of the Customs Inspector are understood to have necessitated this action on the part of Mr Barnaby.—Western Chronicle.

AMERICAN GALL.—We have received a copy of Once a Week, a journal published by P. F. O'Brien, New York, and devoted to choice literature and current news. Among other attractions of the copy before us is a large illustration entitled, "The Annexation of Canada," in which the Prince of Wales is represented holding the American flag. Among the other notabilities represented as being present are Edwin Booth, General Boulanger, Erasmus Wiman and Prince Bismark. Thanks, awfully.

Valuable Testimonials.

The following testimonials will be of valuable service to all intending using dyes and want to be sure of getting good reliable dyes:—

We the undersigned have used and sold all kinds of dyes, but have found none near so good as the "Excelsior" dyes; for which we can truly say that the "Excelsior" dyes are the best dye that can be used. They are sold by all first-class grocers and druggists at only 8 cents per package, which is cheaper than other dyes, and they will also dye more goods than any dyes we ever used; and a trial of a package or two will soon convince all that are interested in dyeing. They will not fade like other dyes and besides give a most beautiful color, and can use them; and are economical, brilliant and durable colors.
