Practical Fashion Hints

By Alice Gibson

A feature of this little dress (6453) which makes it especially suited to wash materials is the opening at the top of the sleeve and underarm. The dress may be opened and laid flat on the ironing board.

As illustrated it is developed in white linen and embroidered with an attractive raised design; the edge of the neck is scalloped and these scallops may be continued down the shoulder and underarm closing.

If preferred the underarm seam may be closed and the shoulder seam only left open.

Linen, madras, crepe, or gingham may all be used to advantage with this design.

For a child of eight this pattern requires 2 1/2 yards of 36 inch material. The pattern is cut in 5 sizes; 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 years.

This Is a Perfect Pattern.

No need to state right size, passing the tape around the fullest part of the breast well up under the arms.

The pattern may be obtained by sending name and address, pattern No. and size and fifteen cents to DAVID SPENCER LIMITED.

CARDINAL DYING

Breslau, Germany, March 3.—Cardinal George Kopp, the highest dignitary of the Roman Catholic church in Germany, is dying at Troppau, Austrian Silesia. He is 77 years old.

Opera House

Rath Bros., the tumblers and acrobats, gave another good performance at the Opera House last night and received a good mark of appreciation from their audience. They are extremely clever in their work, doing some remarkably fine hand and toe springing.

Dayton, the yodeler, gives a good turn, while the pictures which follow the vaudeville are good. The Opera House, by the way, has installed a new moving picture machine and the change is all to the good, the pictures being very distinct to all parts of the house.

The show will be repeated tonight for the last time when there will be an entire change of vaudeville and pictures.
