LITTLE'S LIVING AGE.

THE LIVING AGE has been published for more than forty years and has met with constant commendation.
A WEEKLY MAGAZINE, it gives fifty
two numbers of sixty-four pages each, or more than

Three and a Quarter Thousand
double-column octavo pages of reading-matter.
It presents in an inexpensive form, considering the amount of matter, and with combined freshness and completeness nowhere else attempted.

The best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Serials and Short Stories, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Science, Fiction, and the most interesting and valuable information from the entire body of the literature of the day.
Literature, and from the most reliable sources.

FOREMOST LIVING WRITERS.

The ablest and most cultivated intellects, in every department of literature, Science, Fiction, and Art find expression in the Foremost Literature of Europe, and especially of Great Britain.

The Living Age, "forming four large volumes
a year," furnishes from the great and generally invaluable mass of this literature, the only compilation that, while within the reach of all, is satisfactory to the COMPLETION, with which it imparts whatever is of immediate interest, or
of solid, permanent value.

It is therefore indispensable to every one who wishes to keep abreast of the current intellectual progress of the time, or to cultivate in himself or his family general education and literary taste.

OPINIONS.

"Nearly the whole world of authors and writers
appears in 'The Living Age' in their best moods.
Art, science and literature find fresh and eloquent expression in its pages from the pen of the best writers of the day and the reader is kept well informed of the current thought of the age."
—New York Tribune.

It has now for many years held the first place
of all our serial publications. The only possible competition that could be made is in the matter of the amount of reading it affords. There is nothing noteworthy in science, history, biography,
philosophy, or religion, that cannot be found in it.
Its readers are supplied with the best literature of the day."
—The Christianian, New York.

"It may be truthfully and cordially said that it never offers a dry or valueless page."
—New York Tribune.

"Biography, fiction, science, criticism, history,
poetry, travel, whatever men are interested in, all
are found here. It furnishes more for the money than any other periodical within our knowledge."
—The Watchman, Boston.

"There is nothing like it."
—Christian at work, New York.

"It has for us an interest and value beyond those of any other publication. Coming once a week, it gives, while yet fresh, the productions of the foremost writers of the day."
—Montreal Gazette.

"Through its pages alone, it is possible to be as well informed as best literature can be by the use of a single volume."
—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"It enables the reader to keep pace with the best thought and literary work of our time."
—Christian Union, New York.

"Foremost of the eclectic periodicals."
—N. Y. World.

"It furnishes a complete compilation of any independent literature."
—Chicago Evening Journal.

"It saves not only time, but money."
—Pacific Christianian, San Francisco.

It has become indispensable."
—New York Observer.

It still keeps to the front, as the best of all magazines. If limited to one publication, we would infinitely prefer "The Living Age" to all others. It is a gem in the literature of the day."
—Morning Star, Wilmington, N. C.

It is one of the greatest of the age—Spectator, Hamilton, Canada.

one or other of our vigorous American
