DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

MISSION POINT CHURCH BURNED. On Tuesday afternoon, July lith about 2.30 o'clock, fire was discovered in he Catholic Church at Mission Point, Campbellton. Every effort was immediately made to extinguish it but itmade apid headway and in the course of half in hour the building was a mass of lames. Unfortunately a heavy gale was blowing from the west which quickly fanned the fire, blowing the parks over the village, and in a very hort time the Priest's house which Foremost Physicians in America-A stood east of the church caught. Father Smith and his workers, unable o save anything further from the medicine would ever prove of the without aid from the town fire brigate no serious damage being done.
