

NEW ENGLISH... HALIFAX, February 1, 1855. The Royal... morning...

CAMP BEFORE SEBASTOPOL. Dec. 30. There has been a remarkable change in the weather within the last few days...

On the 26th the French lent the English army 50 horses, and on the 27th they lent them several hundred more...

The date of the last mail about 100 horses, ponies and mules have been landed here for the use of the army...

As the early progress of our operations was a grand one, our camp has been enlarged...

The number of officers "leading in their ranks" has greatly increased lately, and in the medical department...

The following are among the latest telegraphic despatches received: Marseilles, Jan. 17. The Ephraim, which left Constantinople on the 8th inst. has arrived...

ARRIVAL OF THE HUTS. War Department, Jan. 12, 1855. His Grace the Duke of Newcastle has this day received a Despatch, of which the following is a copy...

From the European Times. The latest direct advices from the Crimea extend to the 11th. Quar Pasha has had a conference with the allied generals on the 5th...

LETTERS FROM THE CAMP. (FROM AN ASSISTANT-SURGEON.) January 1.—Last week I had two letters from Scutari. The first was from a man who had not been out here...

THE SOLDIERS SHOULD BE REWARDED, NOT THE CHIEFS. "SEBASTOPOL, Dec. 20.—A Captain in the 33d writes as follows:—Our medical department is still very badly managed...

THE DUKES OF CAMBRIDGE.—The Duke has returned to Malta to see what effect the change of air will have on his debilitated health...

ENDEAVOURS TO OBTAIN AN ARMISTICE. We learn from Vienna and Berlin that great efforts are at this moment being brought to bear to obtain the consent of the Western Powers to an armistice...

CAPTURE OF RUSSIAN PRIGAIERS. PARIS, Jan. 10.—Accounts from Odessa of the 5th of December, state that the Russian frigates Aurora and Diana had been captured by a coast-guard of English and French men...

the difficulty of effecting this desirable object is very great, owing to the very limited extent of the harbour, its crowded state, and the narrow entrance to the town...

THE BRITISH AND FRENCH SOLDIERS. The arrival of the Royal Mail Steamship Africa led us in possession of the latest accounts from the Crimea, by which we learn that after an interval of comparative inaction...

RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN POWERS. VIENNA, Thursday, Jan. 18.—The English and French ministers have received powers, enabling them to treat for peace with Russia.

NEWS FROM THE CRIMEA. The Monitor of Thursday, the 18th, publishes news from Constantinople to the 11th. Quar Pasha was, on the 5th inst. in council with the Generals of the Allied Armies before Sebastopol...

LETTERS RECEIVED FROM NO LESS THAN SIX DIFFERENT OFFICERS in the Crimea are all written full of confidence in high spirits. One writes, Lord Raglan's staff, writes that "he" (Lord R.) "is very kind to me, as he is to every one."

FRYSIA. Friesland still stands aloof from active alliance with the Western Powers, so far as the treaty of Dec. 2nd; but Berlin, more resolute, has gone back to the treaty of April 9th, and declared itself in the centre with France and England...

the English works, where he acquired all the information he wished. Emboldened by this success, he returned on the following day, and was there more unreserved in asking questions...

THE CROSSING OF THE DANUBE BY THE RUSSIANS. VIENNA, Jan. 15.—The following is official during the night of the 7th inst. a Russian detachment crossed the Danube, and advanced as far as Babadagh, the Russians captured 83 Turks and one flag...

THE DUKES OF CAMBRIDGE.—The Duke has returned to Malta to see what effect the change of air will have on his debilitated health, which at one day was favorable, the next indolent...

LETTERS RECEIVED FROM NO LESS THAN SIX DIFFERENT OFFICERS in the Crimea are all written full of confidence in high spirits. One writes, Lord Raglan's staff, writes that "he" (Lord R.) "is very kind to me, as he is to every one."

FRYSIA. Friesland still stands aloof from active alliance with the Western Powers, so far as the treaty of Dec. 2nd; but Berlin, more resolute, has gone back to the treaty of April 9th, and declared itself in the centre with France and England...

LETTERS RECEIVED FROM NO LESS THAN SIX DIFFERENT OFFICERS in the Crimea are all written full of confidence in high spirits. One writes, Lord Raglan's staff, writes that "he" (Lord R.) "is very kind to me, as he is to every one."

of dates, praises those soldiers on the ground that they fought under Napoleon, and against the Sultan. They are so doubt better so than if they had. This proceeding of the government in Turin has given great offence to the Italian Liberals...

THE BRITISH AND FRENCH SOLDIERS. The arrival of the Royal Mail Steamship Africa led us in possession of the latest accounts from the Crimea, by which we learn that after an interval of comparative inaction...

RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN POWERS. VIENNA, Thursday, Jan. 18.—The English and French ministers have received powers, enabling them to treat for peace with Russia.

LETTERS RECEIVED FROM NO LESS THAN SIX DIFFERENT OFFICERS in the Crimea are all written full of confidence in high spirits. One writes, Lord Raglan's staff, writes that "he" (Lord R.) "is very kind to me, as he is to every one."

FRYSIA. Friesland still stands aloof from active alliance with the Western Powers, so far as the treaty of Dec. 2nd; but Berlin, more resolute, has gone back to the treaty of April 9th, and declared itself in the centre with France and England...

LETTERS RECEIVED FROM NO LESS THAN SIX DIFFERENT OFFICERS in the Crimea are all written full of confidence in high spirits. One writes, Lord Raglan's staff, writes that "he" (Lord R.) "is very kind to me, as he is to every one."

a grade beyond which he could not go. The officer is the proprietor of the State; the country is all for the soldier. This is the primary organization...

THE ARRIVAL OF THE BRITISH AND FRENCH SOLDIERS. The arrival of the Royal Mail Steamship Africa led us in possession of the latest accounts from the Crimea, by which we learn that after an interval of comparative inaction...

RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN POWERS. VIENNA, Thursday, Jan. 18.—The English and French ministers have received powers, enabling them to treat for peace with Russia.

LETTERS RECEIVED FROM NO LESS THAN SIX DIFFERENT OFFICERS in the Crimea are all written full of confidence in high spirits. One writes, Lord Raglan's staff, writes that "he" (Lord R.) "is very kind to me, as he is to every one."

FRYSIA. Friesland still stands aloof from active alliance with the Western Powers, so far as the treaty of Dec. 2nd; but Berlin, more resolute, has gone back to the treaty of April 9th, and declared itself in the centre with France and England...

LETTERS RECEIVED FROM NO LESS THAN SIX DIFFERENT OFFICERS in the Crimea are all written full of confidence in high spirits. One writes, Lord Raglan's staff, writes that "he" (Lord R.) "is very kind to me, as he is to every one."

ORIGINAL IS TORN