

THE CONCEPTION-BAY MAN.

(From Willmer & Smiths European Times)

The Post of yesterday announces that down to the 14th July Delhi had not fallen; but that "the mutiny was spreading." Two hundred and forty women and children had been massacred at Cawnpore. We fear we have seen but the beginning of an outbreak which will spread through the whole of the native troops of India. How truthfully and prophetically the "Iron Duke" spoke of the native troops in whose fidelity he had little, if any, confidence!

Since preparing the above, last evening, an extra from the Post confirmed the intelligence respecting the position of Delhi and the deplorable butchery of women and children, together with—awful to relate!—the troops of the garrison at Cawnpore who were compelled, through famine, to surrender to the insurgents who, in their thirst for blood and hellish revenge, violated the most solemn promises!—The Steamer for here from Halifax, left port at 3 o'clock yesterday morning; and in our next issue our readers may expect the fullest particulars of the most important events.—Parliament had been prorogued on the 28th August, and the utmost support (naturally enough) would be given by the government to restore tranquillity to India.—[The Antelope, it is understood, would take the place of the Circassian, and leave Liverpool for here on the 5th instant.]—Times.

In 1853 the Bengal native army numbered in all 83,946 men. Of these 70,079 were infantry. Of the composition of the cavalry the returns are silent, but the infantry was thus classified—Brahmins, 26,893; Rajpoots, 27,335; Hindoos of inferior caste, 15,761; Mahomedans, 21,699; Christians, 1118; Sikhs, 50.

A CONTINENTAL RUMOUR.—Steps have been taken, we learn, by the English Government, to engage French officers on half-pay to enter the British service in India. Engagements will not be contracted for less than two years, and not for more than five. The pay will be: Captains, £800 per annum; lieutenants, £600; second lieutenants, £400; all the travelling expenses, out and home, to be defrayed by the East India Company. Emancipation of Brussels.

THE FRENCH EMPEROR AT HAVRE.—Their majesties arrived off Havre at midnight on Monday, and were greeted with the cheers of thousands who had congregated on the quays in spite of the late hour. Next morning their Majesties left the Reine Hortense, after having distributed crosses amongst its officers, and landed amidst the immense enthusiasm of the inhabitants. At half-past nine they arrived at the railway station, which, like the other public buildings and the principal thoroughfares, was decorated with steamers and garlands. A deputation here met the Emperor who warmly thanked its members for the reception given him by the town of Havre. "You possess," said the Emperor, "all the elements of a great town; it shall be my task to develop them." Their Majesties remained some time at Rouen, when they visited the cathedral and other public buildings; they then left for St. Cloud. The Emperor has commanded that a painting shall be executed representing his arrival at Osborne on board the Reine Hortense. It is believed that M. Gudin, the eminent marine painter, will be employed on the occasion.

IRELAND.

The Carlton Post says—It is generally rumoured that the agent of one of the most extensive landed proprietors in this country has absconded with the sum of £11,000. We withhold the name for the present, as we speak only from public rumour.

The Dublin election committee has decided that Messrs. Gorgan and Vane, the sitting members, were duly elected; but it specifies several acts of bribery, treating, and promising which took place without the authority or knowledge of the sitting members.

The Drogheda election committee has decided that Mr. McCann was duly elected for that borough, but reports that riotous proceedings happened on the nomination and polling days, and that it did not appear that proper precaution had been taken by the authorities to secure good order.

A whole village at Dartford, near Loughrea was levelled to the ground last week by a body of men called the "Crowbar Brigade." The tenants had been ejected in the process of the law, but still held their cottages. The work of demolition was carried on under the inspection of the sub-sheriff.

On 8th, two officers of the 17th Lancers, Mr. John T. Walker, Mr. W. W. King, their seconds, Mr. Thomas and Sir C. Hutchinson, were taken into custody, on a retired ground, near Howth, where they were about to fight a duel. The causus belli was a lady. The parties were held to bail in £1000 each, and two sureties of £250 each.

LATEST NEWS.

INDIA.

The Bombay arrived at Suez yesterday morning, bringing dates from Bombay to the 30th

July. The latest date from Delhi is July 14, at which time the city was still held by the rebels. Though we have parts of five regiments before Delhi, only 2,000 Europeans can be mustered for any effective attack, in consequence of detachments to protect other places.

Sir Henry Barnard died of cholera on the 5th of July, and was succeeded by General Reid. The Bombay and Madras Presidencies were perfectly tranquil, and their armies continued loyal.

General Sir H. Lawrence died on the 4th of July. The garrison of Lucknow is holding out. General Havelock, at the head of 2000 Europeans, has defeated the rebels in three engagements, recapturing Cawnpore and capturing 26 guns. These actions were very brilliant, and with very little loss on our side.

The garrison of Agra fought the Neemuch mutineers on the 5th of July. Our loss was 49 killed and 92 wounded, out of the total force of 500. Several massacres have taken place in the northwest provinces.

The following despatch from Trieste, confirming and completing the above Government despatch, has been subsequently received:—

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 21.
The Indian and Australian mails leave to day with dates from Calcutta to the 28th; Bombay, 30th; Hong Kong, 10th July.

On the 14th Delhi still held out. The enemy had made three sorties, in all which they were totally defeated, and suffered heavy loss.

Sir Hugh Wheeler has been killed at Cawnpore. The garrison, pressed by famine, surrendered the place to Nana Sahib, by whom, in violation of his solemn promises, all were massacred. Nana Sahib was subsequently twice attacked, and utterly defeated with great loss, by General Havelock, who has re-occupied Cawnpore.

Lucknow is confidently expected to hold out until relieved by Havelock.

The remaining regiments in the Punjab have been disarmed.

At Sealcote the 9th Light Cavalry and 46th Native Infantry mutinied, but were subsequently attacked by Brigadier Nicholson, and utterly routed.

At Saugor the 31st Regiment, under their native officers, alone drove the revolted 42nd out of the station.

Holkar remains staunch.

There has been some disturbance at Hyderabad, in the Deccan, but it has been suppressed.

The Bombay and Madras Presidencies continue tranquil.

THE CONCEPTION-BAY MAN.

HARBOR GRACE, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 16, 1857.

FROM THE NEWFOUNDLANDER

We observe by late Colonial papers that a certain Mr. Perley has been charged by our parental rulers of Downing Street with a mission to Newfoundland and Labrador, in connection with the question of our Fishery Rights, and that H.M. Cutter Nalley had been provided by the Admiral to convey this important personage to our shores.

So then the suspicions and apprehensions intimated by the "Anglo Saxon," and more recently urged by some of our contemporaries in St. Johns, were not quite so ridiculous and groundless as the Newfoundlander some time since represented them to be and that consistent Journal would now wipe off the remembrance of his contumacy, and factions Participation in the Darling ministerial concession, by "stating with regret, but with little apprehension as to results, that such conduct should meet criticism, and that all should know by what light to read assurances of good faith from a minister of the British Crown."

To us of the outports, who are accustomed to view things in a plain and ordinary way, there is nothing very unaccountable or surprising in the mission of Mr. Perley to Newfoundland; Mr. Labouchere, like every other able minister is disposed to profit by experience and to avail himself of an unfortunate concatenation of political circumstances (which had no previous existence in this country,) to settle satisfactorily, at least to the French, the much vexed and long pending question of the rights of the latter to our shores and fisheries.

When Governor Darling by and with the advice of his ministry, or at least with their full sanction, so far misinterpreted the Anglo-French Treaties upon mutual rights, as virtually to decide that they should no longer be held to be mutual upon those parts of our coast where the French had usurped and forcibly maintained an exclusive right for years. We repeat when this was done by our own government, French usurpation was sanctioned, and a sufficient ground established, upon which to found other demands scarcely less reasonable, and to urge other sacrifices to English diplomacy or French cupidity.

The influence at present exercised by the Emperor of the French on the English Court; would even under more favourable circumstances, be sufficient to justify considerable alarm on the part of the inhabitants of this country; but as the authority cited is not of a character to warrant more immediate apprehensions, we shall reserve further remark, until the precise nature of Mr. Perley's Mission is defined and generally understood.
