Eat Without Fear
of Indigestion or Sour Acid Stomach

Instant relief! "Pape's Diapepsin" ends your stomach trouble forever.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the dan-age—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undiges-ted food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

When the butter won't come put a little honey in the cream—a teaspoonful to a gallon of cream. It works wonders.

The Best Boots
of Them All.

You have heard of Cinderella and the Slipper that she wore, you have seen the neat prunella that your mother wore of yore; of the baskins, "skinny whoppers" and the "blowers" too, also, and the boots as round as hoppers which they wore here long ago, and the boots they now are using in the summer, spring and fall; other boots I'm not abusing, but the Hi-press beats them all. Could we sing like great Apollo or had we the pipes of Pan, Hi-press boots can knock them hollow, this we'd play for every man, how for wearing they're tougher than the soul of Hun or Goth, and we tell you he's a bluffer who would dare to say they're not. If you think we are too chatty then at Bowring's give a call and you'll hear from genial "Natty" that the Hi-press beats them all, Panacea was the daughter of the god of medicine and 'tis said that many sought her when her "cure all" was in helm. But if now she was abiding she would take a far back seat and her medicine be hiding for it couldn't cure cold feet.
With the "Hi-press" rubber riddle which is cut big and small, it is they are the "proper" riddle for the Hi-press beats them all—adv.

The informal evening gown has quite a high neckline.
