Ten Lives Lost in Mine Explosion in Pennsylvania—Fishermen Adrift for Six Days, Rescued by French Liner—Argentine Flier Will Follow MacLaren Route.

KING REVIEWS NAVY.
PORTSMOUTH, Eng., July 27. King George, accompanied by the Duke of Cornwall and Prince of Wales, Saturday reviewed the 134 warships which, with 30,000 officers and men comprise Great Britain's naval strength in home waters. The King's yacht Victoria and Albert steamed along the lines of warships accompanied by the Admiralty yacht on which were members of the Labor Government.

REPARATIONS EXPERTS VISIT THE FLEET.
LONDON, July 27. Most of the Allied Plenipotentiaries and Experts and Advisers and the visiting bankers left the problems of the inter-Allied Conference to the smoothing influence of England's leisurely week end, when they themselves sought relaxation from the Reparations parties away from the British capital. Most of the delegates were on board the guest ships following in the wake of the Royal yacht, from which the King reviewed the British fleet at Spithead, Saturday afternoon. Informal conversations among the few experts remaining here continued to-night but it was stated in British official quarters that the position between the conference of financial experts and the bankers remained unchanged. The opinion was expressed that little could be done to reconcile the differences until after the plenary session at four o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

ADRIFT IN DORY FOR SIX DAYS.
NEW YORK, July 28. When the French liner France arrived yesterday from Havre she had on board two Breton fishermen, Francois Huedos, 36, and Francois Allain, 45, who were picked up at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, 100 miles south of Cape Race. They had been adrift in a dory for six days. For seventy-two hours the men had no food or water, and were almost exhausted when rescued. Forty-eight hours rest and good food and rosy wine soon restored them. Huedos and Allain were members of the crew of forty-four fishermen who sailed on the schr. Esquadrana from St. Malo on April 23. They strayed from their ship on July 17th.

TEN LIVES LOST IN MINE EXPLOSION.
GATES, Pa., July 26. The bodies of ten miners who met death last night when an explosion wrecked a section of the Gate Mine of the H. C. Frick Coke Company, were brought to the surface this morning. Seventy-five miners were at work when the blast came and a check of the company list showed that sixty-five reached safety.

THE FEAST OF ST. ANNE.
STE. ANNE DE BEAUPRE, Que., July 26—More than twenty thousand people are here to-day attending the Feast of St. Anne, and only for the fact that the old Basica has not yet been replaced the spectacle presented would have all the splendor of former years. In the courtyard of the hundreds of people have been coming in from all parts of the country to attend the preparatory mission, but since yesterday the flow has increased vastly. Cripples of all descriptions with hope in their eyes have been seeking intervention of Thaumaturgia, some of them spending part of the night in one of the numerous chapels, while others have been waiting for hours for their turn to go to Confession. The Redemptionist Fathers spent a busy evening and were engaged from early hours this morning in answering calls from the Pilgrims.

ARGENTINE FLIER TO FOLLOW MACLAREN ROUTE.
LONDON, July 26. A despatch from Rotterdam states that Major Pedro Seanni, Argentine flier, who has announced his intention of attempting to fly round the world, arrived there this morning at 9.45 o'clock from Amsterdam and left for Le Burget. The route to be followed by Major Seanni will be the one used by Stuart MacLaren, British flier.

VALUABLE DOG SLAIN.
HARBOR SPRINGS, Mich., July 26. A "timber wolf," slain near here last week by Solomon Francis, an Indian youth, to-day was identified as a trained police dog, veteran of the Great War, one of a pair belonging to Mrs. R. T. Houk, of Cincinnati, Ohio, valued at $10,000, and said to be one of the most valuable dogs in the United States.

HOME BANK LIQUIDATORS TAKE ACTION.
TORONTO, July 26. The liquidators of the Home Bank have entered action at Osgoode Hall against W. Grant Morden, of London, England, and Charles A. Barnard, of Montreal, to recover $1,783,267, balance alleged due on three promissory notes. The three notes were for $1,504,075, each dated November 1, 1919 and made by defendants and Edmund Bristol, payable to the order of the Home Bank. Credits are given for payments to Edmund Bristol totalling $30,000.

S. S. BERGENSFJORD DAMAGED BY FIRE.
CHRISTIANIA, Norway, July 26. Soon after leaving port Saturday the liner Bergensfjord caught fire following an explosion in the after engine. The liner anchored in a side arm of Christiania Harbor and landed all her 450 passengers. The damage to the vessel is considerable.

WIRE TAPPERS ARRESTED.
MONTREAL, July 27. What is thought by the police to be part of an international wire tapping organization with elaborate ramifications in North America and Europe, was given a severe jolt Friday when detectives raided a downtown office and discovered a number of dummy telephones without any connection with central. Later two men were arrested. They gave the names as Edward Long, Alias "Chapman" Lewis, 52, and George Wallace, 53, when they appeared before Judge Casson in the Arraignment Court Saturday, charged with theft, and were remanded for preliminary trial August 1st. Wallace was granted bail in $10,000, but Long was committed to the Extradition Court as he is wanted on two serious charges in Florida.

CHIEF JUSTICE OF ALBERTA DIES SUDDENLY.
EDMONTON, July 27. Hon. D. L. Scott, Chief Justice of Alberta, died suddenly at his home at Cooking Lake, Alta., Saturday, aged 78. He was born in Brampton, Ontario.

STOCK PRICE IMPROVEMENT.
NEW YORK, July 27. Stock prices continued to respond to-day to reports of improving business conditions, moving upward on a large volume of trading under the leadership of rails, sugars, public utilities and merchandising issues. Twenty-four stocks established new high prices for the year, including six rails, five public utilities, six merchandising issues and seven miscellaneous American Can, which crossed 120 for the first time since its sharp decline earlier in the year, was one of the day's features. Other pivotal issues also improved, Baldwin closing a point higher at 119, and United States steel and Studebaker closing fractionally higher at 101½ and 37½ respectively.

MINERS ENTOMBED.
GATES, Pa., July 26. Eleven to fifteen men are entombed in a soft coal mine of the H. G. Frick Coal Company here, as a result of an explosion that occurred about three o'clock last night. The mine is reported to have been reduced to debris and the rescue crew, summoned from the entire section are endeavoring to force an entrance into its gas filled chambers.

CIVILIANS WARNED TO GET OUT.
WASHINGTON, July 26. By radio broadcasting and leaflets dropped from airplanes, the Secretary of War of Brazil last night warned the remaining 300 civilians in Sao Paulo to abandon the city leaving the rebels to their fate. The State Department received this information to-night in cable from Sheldon L. Crosby, in charge in Rio de Janeiro. The cable indicated that the Government of Brazil had definitely decided to use heavy artillery against the rebels of Sao Paulo to a degree not attempted heretofore.

TAR AND FEATHERS OUTRAGE.
FREDERICK, Maryland, July 26. Eight men and one woman, arrested on warrants charging them with tarring and feathering Miss Dorothy Grandon, 20, of Martinsburg, West Virginia, were arraigned before Magistrate Brust and held for September Grand Jury under $2,000 each. Bail was fixed at $5,000 for Miss Grandon as a material witness. Among those arrested are Mrs. Mary Shank, whom the girl charges with applying tar and feathers, her husband, Calvin Shank, and her father-in-law, Roma Shank. At the Magistrate's enquiry, Mrs. Shank admitted applying the tar and feathers. The episode took place about midnight Thursday while Miss Grandon, Miss Mabel Willis, two men companions, names have not been learned, and Miss Viola Kennedy, were returning from Myersville to the latter woman's home where all had been staying. Miss Grandon and Miss Kennedy were walking ahead of the others when the mob arrived in an automobile; Mrs. Shank's Magistrate said, confessed to beating the Grandon girl, stripping her and applying tar and feathers. She was then abandoned in a semi-conscious condition, being found half an hour later by James Whip, a farmer, who took her to his house. The girl to-day was still suffering from burns, bruises, and shock.

CUBANS SAY REPORTS EXAGGERATED.
HAVANA, Cuba, July 26. Charges that British West Indian subjects have been mistreated in Cuba have been investigated and found to be matters for action in civil courts and not for diplomatic intervention, says a statement to the press, issued to the Press by Secretary of State De Cospedoe. "The British version, as published in London," the statement adds, "appeared to exaggerate the treatment given to Jamaicans," and did not give full details including the Cuban viewpoint. President Zayas will send a message to Congress on the subject and the Department will issue a gray book, giving all correspondence.

Fortunes Waiting to be Found.
Hunts for Buried Treasure. Treasure-seeking is a subject that holds a never-ending fascination for most of us, and has always been a favourite theme with the writers of romance—perhaps Stevenson's immortal story is the most enduring and alluring of all the tales that still delight old and young. And who is too old to be roused and thrilled by accounts of hidden treasure, whether under the sea or buried in lonely tropic isles—of hidden galleons, sunken galleons, buccaners and pirates, and the walking of the plank? Countless fortunes lie on the sea-floor, for the ocean-bed is strewn with wrecks and treasure, and if ever we are able to explore the deeps, mankind will be astounded at the revelation.

Riches or Death. It is probable that many of the most wonderful stories of sunken treasure are but legends, but one need go no farther back than the late War for reality. Enough substantial stuff was sent below during that long drawn conflict to make a nation prosperous for many a day. Somewhere in the Pacific is a little island—where the pirates stored their loot. A party of adventurers that went in search of it, believing they had unearthed the secret of an old chart, was never heard of again. An Australian miner spent part of his life in the bush trying to re-find a mine his partner found and died in describing. But he never succeeded, and, eventually, the bushmen stumbled on his skeleton. A party of French scientists narrowly escaped death from thirst in the Sahara seeking traces of a lost caravan of precious stones that never reached Timbuctoo, and was supposed to have been overwhelmed by a sandstorm, lost its tracks, and missed the wells. Diamonds Mislaid. Many an expedition has sought the famed mines of King Solomon. The wonderful platinum mine, said to have been discovered in 1805 by a German doctor, who died of exhaustion on emerging from the Kalahari desert, has never been traced again, though at least two parties have come to grief in further search and several solitary secret trackers have never returned. The Afriander still believes in the "cave of gleaming gold" that was described by an excited Kafir in the Krugersdorp; and in the Orange River country a Boer family have sought for years for a parcel of dia-
