

AT THE NICKEL TO-DAY.

James Kirkwood and Lila Lee in 'WANDERING HUSBANDS' supported by Margaret Livingston

Story by C. Gardner Sullivan. Directed by William Beaudine. Women's wiles—what man can resist them? The voice of conscience cannot be heard against the soft blandishments of a pretty girl. Home, wife—all is forgotten.

ST. JOSEPH'S REGATTA MEETING. Crews Entered—Stakes and Buys Drawn.

At last night's meeting of St. Joseph's Regatta Committee, everything was finalized to make the annual event one Wednesday a successful one. In connection with the judges for the buoys, it was decided to depart from the usual custom of the judges going to the foot of the pond in a carriage and they will go in the motor boat which will leave the committee wharf after the boats pass down and follow the boats too and from the buoys. It was felt that this would be a more satisfactory arrangement as with the congestion of traffic on the road it is difficult to get to a position to see the buoys.

Interval for Tea. 6—Junior Football. 6—Championship. Owing to the fact that St. Joseph's Committee have a sweepstake on the Regatta for six races, it was decided that the Mercantile and Contracting Firms Race, should not be included in the sweepstake, but as a special event. Ticket holders are reminded that this race is not numbered on the programme, neither will it have any bearing on the sweepstake. The following crews then entered for various races.

LAST NIGHT'S GAME. Feildians 3; C.E.I. 1. Only a small attendance of spectators was present at St. George's Field last night to witness the football game between the C.E.I. and Feildians. The exhibition on the whole was very good and resulted in a win for the Feildians by 3 goals to 1. Both teams played without the services of their regular goalkeepers. The Feildians, playing from the western end and notched two goals in the first half. The first came after ten minutes of play by the awarding of a penalty kick, which was successfully placed by R. Withers and the second by Eales, from a forward pass. The C.E.I. team played hard throughout, but were unable to get the ball past Smith, who was playing up to advantage in the Feildian goal. The second half was equally as interesting as the first, although several good chances were lost by the opposing forwards on erratic shooting. However, there was lots of close, snappy play, and before the final whistle sounded each team had found the net once. The final score stood, Feildians 3; C. E. I. 1. Reteree—H. Coutas.

Postponed Games. The regular Senior League fixtures were concluded last night, but there are nine postponed games yet to be played, as follows:— Cadets vs. Star. Saints vs. Feildians. C. E. I. vs. C. L. B. Cadets vs. Feildians. Guards vs. Saints. C. L. B. vs. Feildians. Cadets vs. E. I. B. Star vs. C. L. B. Cadets vs. Saints.
