The long looked for match between th esolutes and the Red Stockings, took place on Friday, on the grounds of the former. The Resolutes won the toss and sent the Reds to the bat, who succeeded in scoring nine runs, while the Resolutes were blanked. This caused great excitement on the part of the Resolutes, and a good deal of wild throwing and muffing was done, which had a telling effect on them, and which the Reds were not slow to take advantage of. From the fifth innings some excellent play was made by the Resolutes, especially a liner by Hunter the pitcher, taken red hot off the bat in excellent style. Some excellent play was noticeable on the part of the Reds. The game was played in a quiet and orderly way throughout. James Howard, of the Independents, acted as umpire in a very satisfactory manner. The following is the score by innings.
