PLUMBERS ARE STILL ON STRIKE; NO SIGN OF RECONCILIATION

Masters Have Advertised Out of Town For Men; Union Urges Men to Stay Away

There was no change in the situation between the plumbers of the city and their employers last evening and the close of the second day of the strike found both masters and men resolute. In all there are 200 men now out on strike and they have behind them a considerable fund which will carry them through for such time as will make the masters relent and give in.
Work is consequently tied up on a number of works which are being carried out in the city but many of the employers have advertised in other cities for men and some of the masters are confident that these will arrive soon and that thus the strike will be broken. The men on the other hand have sent out warnings to many points telling of the state of affairs here and urging workers to absent themselves from Calgary during the present trouble. They are confident that there will not be enough men forthcoming to enable the masters to carry out their contracts with any degree of reasonableness and that the strike of the next few days will produce some sort of settlement.
Both sides profess to be quite indifferent as to the duration of the strike at the present time and both state that it will be a fight to a finish both being apparently quite determined in their resolution not to give in.

MIXED FARMING IS ALBERTA'S FUTURE, SAYS EXPERT

F. E. Tucker, Owner of 4,000 Acres Will Devote Entire Time to Hog Raising

"In my belief, the future of Southern Alberta lies in mixed farming," declares F. E. Tucker, of Bosman, who left Calgary yesterday to return to his 4,000 acre farm near Hanna, Alberta. Mr. Tucker is one of the biggest land developers of Alberta and this year will have about 1300 acres in crops.
"I am going to turn the better part of my farm into a plant for raising hogs," said Mr. Tucker before leaving Calgary. "That is where I can get a dollar's value for a dollar's worth of grain. The hogs can winter out, in the straw stacks, and require but little care."
"My land is planted in flax, oats and barley. There is a great deal of variation in price, and if any varying does come, I will have an upward trend. The hog raising industry, like all other live stock branches, is being forced out of business in the United States by small farmers, and the field is open for Canada."
"Four sections of my land will be summer fallow, have started two of my powerful Imperial motors to work and acres of ground are being turned over each day. This land, I believe, will sell at a profit, and devote my entire time to the other two sections."

BERNHARDT IS FOND OF PEG O' MY HEART

New York, June 3.—Mme. Sarah Bernhardt attended a special performance of "Peg o' My Heart" as a guest of honor at the Cort Theatre last week.
The celebrated French actress laughed and wept in turn at Hartnett's comedy. She applauded the work of Miss Laurette Taylor and the members of her company.
Mme. Bernhardt's request to see "Peg o' My Heart" was the outcome of a personal acquaintance, Miss Taylor having acted with the "Divine Sarah" in "Phedre" at the Palace Theatre two weeks ago.

ALICE NEILSON WILL JOIN MUSICAL COMEDY

At the final meeting of the season of the Professional Women's Club last week it was announced that Alice Neilson, the popular prima donna, has abandoned her career in grand opera and will next season resume her work in operetta and musical comedy. Miss Neilson will take the part of Lady Babbalanza in a musical version of Barrie's "The Little Minister," made for her by W. C. Ferrari.

TERMINAL ELEVATORS FOR MOOSE JAW AND SASKATOON SOON

Statement By Acting Minister of Trade and Commerce on Location of Grain Stores

Ottawa, June 3.—In parliament this morning W. A. Buchanan, of Lethbridge, inquired as to the truth of a statement contained in a dispatch from Moose Jaw that the first interior elevator for Saskatchewan would be at Moose Jaw and the first Alberta elevator at Calgary.
Hon. George H. Parley, acting minister of trade and commerce, said a report had been received from the grain commission, recommending that interior elevators be located at Moose Jaw and Saskatoon.
No recommendation had yet been received, as to where the first elevator would be located in Alberta. He assured Mr. Buchanan that the recommendation of the commission would be acted upon and that sites would be purchased and tenders called for the construction of elevators at Moose Jaw and Saskatoon as soon as possible.
"Sir Wilfrid Laurier," said that a statement had been promised as to the business to come before the house before prorogation. Would there be any new bills, he asked?
"There will be nothing apart from a few more supplementary estimates," said Mr. Jordan. "They will be brought down today."
