PLAIN STATEMENT

There is strength in an argument that needs no other foundation than plain truth. We have received too much merchandise this season and, frankly, we didn't make the sales we ought to, we are forced by condition over which we have no choice, it means a big loss to us, but we have the courage to stand it.

THE HUB, 424 EIGHTH AVENUE EAST

World's Most Daring Attack on PRICES and VALUES

This will be the most sensational feat of merchandise selling ever attempted in the city of Calgary. A real, genuine, bona fide price-cutting event to be long remembered by all, as it is perfectly natural. No merchant wants to see or will slaughter his own merchandise, and it being absolutely necessary for them to have the cash immediately, this reliable and well-known firm has placed its entire stock in the hands of Maurice Isral with strict instructions to dispose of as much merchandise as possible in ten days in order to effect this in such a short space of time everything throughout this mammoth stock will be slaughtered with no regard for its owners. The one place where highest quality and lowest price will meet face to face.

Every Suit, Every Pair of Shoes, every pair of Pants, Every Hat, Every Shirt; in fact, every garment or article in our Big Stock, the price will be sut, and cut to the bottom—mercilessly slaughtered throughout the entire store.
