This Good Old Remedy

isn't just a purgative. Quite the contrary.

It makes purgatives unnecessary by keeping the liver lively.

Take small doses regularly—a larger dose only if you're sure you need it.

That's been the rule of hearty, sprightly, happy folks for 50 years.

seriously ill for the past week, is slowly recovering.

A large number of friends in the village gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ackley on Monday evening and gave them a great surprise. A pleasant evening was spent, after which a dainty lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Ackley will be greatly missed from our midst, as they took a deep interest in the Sunday school and church work.

PORT BRUCE

Mr. Herbert Bingham is spending his vacation here.

A bunch of eight girls from St. Thomas are rusticing at the Sparta Cottage.

Mr. Chauncey Ladd has erected a large flag pole and has floating to the breeze a large United States flag. Of course, above it is the Union Jack.

The school teachers, who have been staying at the King George for the last two weeks, left for their several homes on Monday, after enjoying a very pleasant outing. On the night previous to their leaving, they put on a splendid impromptu patriotic entertainment, assisted by Beebe and Millard, of Aylmer, Professor Wright and Chauncey Ladd, who are summering here, and although the evening was very threatening, a downpour being imminent at any time, a large crowd enjoyed the first class singing

Quarterly services were held at our village church on Sunday last. Rev. Hager, of Aylmer, dispensed the sacrament in a beautiful way and though the day was close we are sure every one enjoyed the solemn service.

The Misses Allen, of Aylmer, and Miss Fay Vanwagoner, of Windsor, and Miss Shirley McConkey visited Miss Clara Procnunier one day last week.

Miss Chamberlain, of Kelvin, and sister, Mrs. Mitchener, of Kansas City, visited the old home and friends here last week.

Mr. Frank Smith had the misfortune to have the thumb taken off his hand last week at W. E. Smith's mill. Cameron Mitchell returned to Chicago last week.

—almost a car-load of text books and school supplies. No change in any of the Public School books, but several new High School text books will be used. H. S. Ancient History, H. S. Chemistry and H. S. Chemistry Manual and H. S. Latin are all new.

All books, scribbles, pencils, slates etc are much more expensive and mighty hard to get. However we have a pretty well assorted stock and apparently enough to last a year.

We will look after them and see that they get the right books and supplies. Tell them to go to
