In the morning a suitable discourse was given by the pastor, and in the evening Rev. Dr. Buchanan, a returned missionary from India, occupied the pulpit. In the morning Easter anthem, which went very well, Miss Bessie Evans took the leading part. In the evening an excellent trio was given by Misses Evans, Temple- in the morning and two in the eventon and McQueeney.

KNOX PRESBYTERIAN.

The services at Knox Presbyterian Church, South London, were unusually interesting. In the morning Rev. Dr. Buchanan, of Ujjain, India, whose tastily decked with Easter lilies. Early ducted by the bishop, and Father Tiernan presided at the altar at high mass, assisted by Father McKeon. An able and appropriate sermon was delivered by Bishop O'Connor on the text: "No man taketh my life from me, for I have presented by the best invaluable to him as a missionary in Central India, gave an interesting account of the progress of the work of the Presbyterian mission in that district of India, set apart as the presided at the organ.

tor. Mr. F. L. Evans.

The platform and reading desk were prettily decorated with Easter lilies and carnations, and the gasoliers and others fittings, having just received a fresh coat of bronze, made the edifice look very cheerful.

AT ST. PAUL'S.

The Easter services at St. Paul's Cathedral were especially fine this year. The chancel was prettily decorated with Easter lilies and foliage plants. The pulpit was relieved with a large cross of beautiful roses. The services were equally appropriate. Holy Compared to the pulpit was relieved to the pulpit platform and desk. Rev. T. S. Johnson occupied the pulpit, and the service was embellished by a quartet, "Rock of Ages," by Misses M. and B. Webster and Messrs. F. and G. Webster. The anthems by the chair ware constituted by the usual tasteful disposition of potted plants and flowers on the pulpit platform and desk. Rev. T. S. The Sabbath school service in the afternoon was a beauty. There was the preliminary selection by the orchestra, and another during the offertory; there were anthems by the school choir, and glorious outbursts of song from all the 600 scholars; with suitable responsive readings. Charming was the quartet, "We Shall Be Changed," by Misses Roblyn and Ruse, Mr. Percy T. Carroll and Mr. W. H. Skinner. It was a great treat, but not more than was to have been expected from the Dundas Street Center Methodist Sunday school, which, Sabbath school of the Dominion. WELLINGTON STREET METHOD-

Easter was commemorated yesterday morning by a special sermon by Rev. A. L. Russell, pastor, and special music by the choir. The anthem was "Te Deum Laudamus" (J. L. Hopkins), and Misses Raymond and Law, and Messrs. Westman and Chambers, sang "We Would See Jesus" (Mendelssohn) excellently. In the evening, it being choir Sunday, the sermon was on the subject of "Singing." The choir sang "And It Shall Come to Pass" with fine effect, and the quartet presented "Jerusalem the Golden" (P. A. During the offertory, the triumphant "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth."

W. Givins, which was well rendered. In the evening the pastor, Rev. Mr. Stuart, delivered a sermon appropriate to the resurrection. The anthem was S. Charles Cooke's "This is the Day," while Mendelssohn's "O, for the Wings of a Dove" was the offertory selection. In the latter Miss Mary Leys sang the difficult soprano solo with spirit and pathos, displaying a voice of rare natural purity, well adapted for sacred song. The chorus work of the choir was also deserving of special mention, and reflected the greatest credit on their painstaking organist and conducting Mrs. Sinclair), and the choir. Miss Rogers presided at the organ. In the evening Mrs. Youmans and Miss Norton sang a duet, "Easter Bells."

Telegon STREET BAPTIST.
