city officials must not act hastly, however, along this line, he said, for the carrying out of the town planning scheme meant much to the future of the city of London. He regretted the defeat of the industrial bylaw, which he believed would have been a good thing for the city. It meant no addition to the tax rate, but would have enabled the industrial committee and the chamber of commerce to work on the same basis as other cities of the province.

URGES HYDRAULIC PLAN

Believes City in Time Will Adopt His Proposed Scheme.

John M. Parsons, the third mayoralty candidate, stated this morning that he at no time expected to be elected. He entered the campaign for the purpose of "bucking the bylaws," he said, and he was satisfied today that he succeeded fairly well. Mr. Parsons was opposed fairly well. Mr. Parsons was opposed to all bylaws.

"I believe that in time the city will adopt my hydraulic plan and use the river water to supply factories," Mr. Parsons said. "I would not talk on this question if I were not a hydraulic engineer, but I understand the situation thoroughly and believe that the city.

CLEMENCEAU ANNOUNCES HIS RETIREMENT FROM FRENCH PARLIAMENT

Draguignan, France, Thursday, Jan. 1.

—Premier Clemenceau declared today he could not continue to represent the department of war in the chamber of deputies, adding that "after the effort of the past year, I would be loath to start again on a task with a fear that my strength would fail me before it could be completed." "Everything is not finished with our victory," he continued. "We must still accomplish formidable work, demanding patience of which France may be incapable. I will always have a duty to perform, though I have ceased to be a member of Parliament."

In fact, the flag was hung at half-mast by the members of the association for the purpose of indicating to the citizens of London their feelings and what they think of the turning down of the proposition for the building of a Memorial Hall. Inside the building gloom seemed to prevail, for the place was unusually quiet this morning. Around a fireplace a silent group of a dozen or so sat and stared moodily into a flickering fire.

It was some time after the reporter entered before anyone spoke, and then: "Well: don't you think it was a rotten shame," from J. W. Cunliffe, the secretary of the association. "We didn't think the citizens of London would do it." the citizens of London would do it." the citizens of London would do it."

THERE WAS CLOSE RACE FOR HONORS IN WARD 1

The race for third place in the aldermanic list of Ward 1 was very close. City Clerk Baker's official figures show that B. F. Brighton received 750 votes, and that P. J. Watt received 745 votes, B. F. Brighton being elected by five Through an error The Advertiser re ported that Mr. Watt had been elected by a majority of four. The error occurred in The Advertiser's report on Subdivision No. 10. B. F. Brighton's total in this subdivision was reported as 80, whereas the official list credits him with 89.

The Advertiser's report on the elec-
