St. Thomas Council To Place Bylaw Before the Electors.

ST. THOMAS, Dec. 8.—By unanimous vote the city council decided, at its last regular meeting of the year, to place street, August 12 last. He claimed that

The much-discussed proposed sanitary sewer for Malakoff street again came up for discussion. A solution of the vexing problem loomed up very unexpectedly when Ald. Lemon announced that a Mr. Smith had made a proposition to him, which, if successful, would save tearing up the improved sections of the successful, which is the successful a move about which would save tearing up the improved section of that street, a move about which the council long hesitated. It is proposed that J. L. Thompson for whose service the sewer was to be laid by order of the health department should now get connection through private property. The city was asked to bear a portion of the expense of constructing such a sewer.

Young Mrs. Beecroft Had Miserable Time Until She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Hamilton, Ont .- "I have suffered for Hamilton, Ont.—"I have suffered for three years from a female trouble and consequent weakness, pain and irregularity which kept me in bed four or five days each month. I nearly went crazy with pains in my back, and for about a week at a time I could not do my work. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the Hamilton Compound advertised in the Hamilton Spectator and I took it. Now I have no pain and am quite regular unless I over-work or stay on my feet from early norning until late at night. I keep house and do all my own work without any trouble. I have recommended the Compound to several friends."—Mrs. EMILY BEECROFT, 269 Victoria Ave. N.,

Why Money Rates Play See-Saw

If you had $1,000 to loan and there were 100 people who wanted to bor= row it, these people in their anxiety to secure the use of your money would bid against each other by offering you high rates of interest.

But if you wanted to borrow money and there were 100 people who wanted to loan it to you, you would secure it at a low rate of interest because these people would prefer to put their money to work at even a low rate of interest rather than to have it idle, earning nothing.

In each case the security behind the loan might be the same-yet the interest rate would vary greatly.

These extreme examples illustrate the ups and downs of money rates.

During the war the government had need of a great part of the wealth of the country. Individuals or corporations whose need of funds compelled them to compete with the government for money were obliged to pay a high price for the money they secured.

The needs for money since the war have also been great so that those who secure it are in effect still bidding against each other and paying a high price for the funds they obtain.

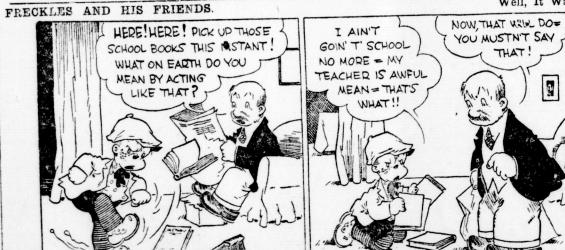

A common way for a corporation to borrow money is through the medium of a bond issue. The high rates paid during recent years have been all to the advantage of those who loan their money by purchasing bonds.

But less money is now being sought by borrowers than during the war and the months following the war. Supply is beginning to meet demand. Interest rates in some instances have already declined. They will in time decline still more. The opportunities to secure the highest rates in many years are passing. Some day s and 6 per cent will again seem high.
