ANTI BODY SPURNS AMENDMENTS TO BIG UNION BILL

Presbyterian Church Association Declare Changes Are Empty and Illusory.

TAKE CHURCH AWAY

Canadian Press Despatch.
Ottawa, May 15.—"The concessions which the amendments appear to offer are therefore, in our view, empty and illusory," says a statement issued tonight by the Presbyterian Church Association, reviewing the proposed compromise amendment to the church union bill.

The statement says the amendments may appear upon a superficial reading to make substantial concessions to those opposing the bill. In reality they do nothing to remove or modify the fundamental objections to the bill as introduced.

The basic injustice of the bill, adds the statement, is merely postponed. It is not removed. The statement continues: "The vital issue between the promoters of the bill and its opponents is this: We desire to preserve the Presbyterian Church in Canada. The bill would destroy it. Upon this issue the amendments make no concession whatever. The bill as amended wipes out our church on the 15th day of April, 1925, just as completely as the original bill would have wiped it out on the 31st of May, 1924."

See No Change.
"After the 15th of April, 1925, non-concurring congregations will be in no better position under the amendments than under the original bill. They will be separate and isolated units, belonging to no church, for their own church will be gone. Any church which they may organize must be a new church, with a new name. To some the difference in name may seem trifling, but the Presbyterian Church of Canada would mean, and the unionists intend it to mean, a new organization. "The Presbyterian Church in Canada" would mean the old church, and that is why the unionists are not willing to allow us to use it. The amendments leave unchanged the fate of the minority in the concurring congregations. On the 15th of April, 1925, they will be swept into the united church. If, as individuals, they withdraw from it, they withdraw naked, without church, without congregation and without property."

"The provisions of the bill respecting property, and the colleges are unchanged by the amendments. Presbyterian trusts are diverted to the benefit of the United Church."

"The amended bill is no more constitutional than the original. In principle and detail it is beyond the powers of parliament."

Defend Church Right.
"We have no wish and no right to put obstacles in the way of union for those who desire it. We ask for ourselves no more than that we freely admit to them, the right to belong to the church of our choice. What we resist in their claim that our church must be destroyed, because they have chosen another. Why should they insist upon destroying the existence and even the name of the church to which they no longer wish to belong, but which we seek to maintain and carry on?"

EXCLUSION BILL IN EFFECT JULY 1

Adopted in Disregard of President Coolidge's Desire For Adjustment.

Associated Press Despatch.
Washington, May 15.—Congress, disregarding the desire of President Coolidge that the Japanese immigration problem be adjusted through diplomatic channels, adopted today, by overwhelming votes in each house, the conference report on the immigration restriction bill, which provides for Asiatic exclusion after next July 1.

The measure will be sent to the president probably before the end of this week. Congressional leaders generally expect him to sign it, but it was stated authoritatively at the White House that he had reached no decision.

On the basis of the balloting today in both the House and Senate there would be votes to spare to pass the bill over a presidential veto. The House voted 308 to 58, or 64 in excess of the required two-thirds majority to override a veto, and in the Senate it was 69 to 9, or 17 more than two-thirds.

HERE'S BIG NEWS FOR ALL USERS OF ICE!

The Hydro Shop, after years of cautious investigation, has adopted an electric refrigerator that we are now ready to install in the homes of our patrons with our recommendation and guarantee.—The Kelvinator.

Banish the Iceman with his mussy visits, the shortages and anxieties of hot days, possible impurity and short weight.

The Kelvinator for less cost maintains a dry, biting cold temperature, far colder than melting ice.

The Kelvinator protects your food with inexpensive refrigeration; the freezing unit uses power only when the temperature rises above freezing. Your refrigerator will be always sweet, clean and pure. Think of the delight of having crystal-clear ice cubes made from city water, for table use and refreshing summer drinks.
