DELMAN PITCHES MASTERLY GAME AS LONDON WINS

Tecs Trounce Kazoos With Avalanche of Hits.

KAZOO ERRORS AID

Press Box, Tecumseh Park.-The Tecs smothered the Kazoo jinx under a 12-hit avalanche aided by some five Kazoo misplays, turning in an easy 7 to 1 win on the combination.

Delman in the box looked even better than he has on his other two appearances, and that's patting him some. His support was ironbound, too, only one error being made behind him and that in the first, but did no damage He had a big day in the field with seven

The Tecs wasted no time making their intentions known. Four safe hits and two errors in the first yielded an opening brace of tallies, and they repeated the scoring count in the second on singles by Ruane and Getsie, with Delman's long double sandwiched in between. Two more clean hits were exchanged for the fifth run in the sixth, and the lucky seventh brought a final pair. Kazoo's lone tally came in the seventh, when O'Brien doubled and Oellerman. singled him home.

Montreal won the championship at the Island stadium here today in the Toronto Police Amateur Athletic Association's tournament. About 8,000 persons witnessed the sports. A. Maranda, champion of last year, who repeated, seemed in better form than ever, winning a total of fifteen points, as compared with twelve points won by W. O. Gillen of Toronto, who won second honors and proved a very strong contender. A. Stewart of Toronto, with seven points, won third place. Gillen of Toronto had the honor of winning the first event of the afternoon, the 100-yard dash, in which he defeated Maranda, who came second. Gillen's time was 10 4-5 seconds. Gillen also won the 220-yard run, the quartermile run and the half-mile run. Maranda came second in the 100-yard run, third in the pole vault, fourth in the discus throw, won the standing broad lump won the running bon skin and third in the pole vault, fourth in the discus throw, won the standing broad jump, won the running hop, skip and jump, won the running broad jump, and won the hurdle race. A. Stewart of Toronto, in winning the javelin throwing event, broke the Canadian amateur record, the distance 169 feet, 4½ inches, being much in advance of the Canadian record. 164 feet, 11 NEW HOCKEY PLAYERS REPLACE GALT LOSSES

The Agree or four times pitchers have had a start toward a new record, but they were not good enough to keep up the pace. It is a tough job in these days, and particularly tough when any man with judgment can see that the pitching is not what it was when the Giants and Cubs were battling away in days of old. Luque has caught up with nearly half of Matty's record so far as number of victories is concerned; he is ahead of it by many points in percentage. If he can keep up the pace he will have to win 20 more games to tie Matty and 21 to set a new record. This is within the bounds of possibility if the Cuban gets enough chances to pitch and if his arm is good enough for it. Would Be Hero.
