Will Begin at Wolseley Barracks—The Special Short Course Concluded— Drill of the New Bearer Company Begins. Although the recruits for Baden- Powell's South African police force are already arriving at Ottawa from the western points, the recruiting for the London district will not begin at Wolseley Barracks until Monday next. The work will be continued for three days, during which it is expected the number required from the district will easily be secured. There are already applications in from more than twice the number of men that are likely to be taken from London, and the ma- jority are from men well qualified for the force. Those who are ordered to repart to the district officer command- ing vill have to pay their own expenses and i i the chance of being accepted. After , ussing the medical examination the applicants will be examined both in riding and shooting.
